

MILLION DOLLAR RAIN ENDS FALL DROUGHTS TODAY

Rain Belt Moves Eastward and is Due to Reach Illinois Tonight

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Forecaster C. A. Donnel said a "million dollar rain" spread over a large section of the drought-stricken mid-continent today and would expand slowly in area.

The rain trough extended, he said, from San Antonio, Texas, northeastward through Dallas, Oklahoma, Kansas, northwestern Missouri, Nebraska, central Iowa, most of Wisconsin and to western Lake Superior.

The fall was heavy in some sections last night and this morning, Wichita, Kan., reporting 1.86 inches; Concordia, Kan., 1.5; Omaha, 1.12, and Oklahoma City 1.02.

An autumn heat wave which shattered the records for this late in the season in many localities, plus the drought, had brought worried frowns to many a farmer, although the "September weather" in November was a boon to city dwellers and corn harvesters.

Rain-Belt Moves East

Donnel said the rain-belt was moving slowly eastward, approaching the Mississippi river today, and would extend east of the river tonight and tomorrow. A considerable drop in temperature to more reasonable levels was due to accompany the precipitation.

Donnel said northwestern Illinois would get rain tonight, it would reach Chicago and downstate Illinois and Indiana probably early tomorrow.

He also predicted rain tonight or tomorrow in Michigan, Missouri, Wisconsin, Iowa, rain or snow in Minnesota.

Washington the weather bureau said one of the most serious fall drought on record affected large sections of the midwest from the Rockies to the Appalachians.

Fear for Winter Wheat

Fears were felt for the winter wheat areas, in urgent need of rain. Early seeded wheat and rye were reported at a standstill in most sections while late planted grains were reported to be deteriorating. Farmers were finding increasing difficulty in breaking the hard dry ground for fall plowing.

Governor A. B. Chandler said the fall drought had reached "unprecedented proportions" in Kentucky.

Chicago enjoyed a sunny 76 degree temperature yesterday, an all-time record for November. The mercury climbed to 82 in Little Rock, Ark., and to 80 in Kansas City. Other maxima readings yesterday included 78 at Des Moines, Iowa, St. Louis, Dodge City, Kan., and Peoria, Ill.; 76 at Milwaukee, Cleveland and Cincinnati, and 74 at Detroit and Madison, Wis.

Wells Dry Up in Areas of Southern Illinois

Mt. Carmel, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—New sand bars were making their appearances in the Wabash river here today as the river fell below even the midsummer level.

Joseph Brines, local river and weather observer, said the river level was nine-tenths of a foot. He added that, seldom, even in the driest summer weather, did it get below the one foot level.

Lack of rainfall and unseasonably high temperatures have dried wells and ponds in some sections of southern Illinois and farmers were having to haul water in some areas.

Near Cairo this week and in other sections recently thousands of fish were seined from drying streams and moved to more abundant pools of water.

WPA Worker Exonerated in Death of Son-in-law

Harrisburg, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Exonerated by a coroner's jury which termed the shooting of his son-in-law, Robert Killman, self defense, Mike Bennett, 65, a WPA worker, was at liberty today.

Bennett's daughter, Alwilda Killman, told the jury at the inquest last night that Killman beat her last Saturday and she fled to the home of her parents here Monday. When Killman attempted to gain entrance to the home Monday night Bennett shot her husband with a shotgun.

Bennett testified he warned Killman four times not to attempt to enter the home and when he persisted "I let him have it."

The coroner's jury recommended Bennett's release from the county jail.

FATALLY INJURED

Danville, Ill., (AP)—Maxie Vaughn, 35, of Franklin, Ky., died yesterday from injuries suffered Monday night when he was struck by a switch engine in the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad yards. Vaughn and two companions had left a freight car in the yards and were walking to Danville when the accident occurred.

Safe for Romance

Fall Alto, Calif., Nov. 2—(AP)—Stanford University students have started a campaign before men's and women's student councils to "make the campus safe for romance."

For years campus police have flashed lights and police badges on cars parked in sheltered campus lanes. Miss Coline Upshaw, member of the student executive committee, had a few things to say about this.

"If the Stanford police officers really want to protect the students," she declared, "they should permit automobiles to park on the campus at night instead of forcing romantic couples to 'pitch their woo' on foothill roads where they may become victims of petty party bandits."

FEDERAL JOB HOLDERS FEAR TO TALK TO DIES COMMITTEE

Washington, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Chairman Dies (D-Tex) told newspapermen today the house committee investigating un-American activities had "encountered considerable trouble" in securing witnesses since President Roosevelt rebuked it.

Dies said many of the witnesses he wants to testify hold government jobs which he said, they were afraid of losing if they told of un-American activities they had seen.

Dies said a number of labor witnesses had expressed similar unwillingness to appear before the committee, "since the presidential blast."

Roosevelt criticized the committee recently for "permitting itself to be used in a flagrantly unfair and un-American attempt to influence an election."

The Texan added that since Roosevelt had taken public notice of the investigation the committee had received numerous contributions ranging from $1 to $50.

"Most of these offers came from poor people who were disturbed by the committee's revelations," Dies said.

The committee postponed until tomorrow a hearing scheduled for today on alleged Communist activity in sit-down strikes in Ohio. The chairman said he expected to begin tomorrow a series of hearings lasting about 10 days, after which separate sub-committees would open hearings in the south and on the west coast.

Funeral of George Van Nys, Jr. on Wednesday

The funeral of George Thomas Van Nys, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Van Nys, 204 Chamberlain street, was conducted Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Anne's Catholic church. The Rev. Fr. C. L. Caine was assisted in the service by the Rev. Frs. T. L. Walsh, James Burke and L. J. Guzzardo of St. Patrick's Catholic church. The casket bearers were Edward Vaile, Thomas Sullivan, Dr. Edward Murphy, Dr. Henry J. McCoy, Edward James and Melvin Payne. Out of town relatives attending the service were: Addison Van Nys of New York; John, James, Mary, Agnes and Anna Casey and Charles Myers of Oak Park; Joseph Smith of Joliet and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dixon and Mead Dixon of Springfield.

Transatlantic Plane Service in 6 Months

New York, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Transatlantic airplane deliveries of mail and freight under an American flag line will begin next April, William H. Coverdale, president of the American Export Lines, Inc., has announced.

The line will operate from New York, Baltimore and Boston to Paris—via the Azores and Bordeaux—thence to Berlin, Rome, Athens and Alexandria.

Coverdale said that through its subsidiary, the American Export Airlines, Inc., the parent concern also hoped to inaugurate a non-stop New York-to-Paris air passenger service within two years.

These planes would carry 20 passengers and make the trip in 18 to 20 hours.

Paul Hardy of Lee Instantly Killed When His Auto Runs Into Moving Freight Train

Paul Hardy, 31, of Lee, who operated a service station in Shabbona, was instantly killed, and Seward Brown, 22, also of Lee, was critically injured Wednesday when the coupe in which they were riding struck a Chicago & NorthWestern freight train on a crossing between Waterman and Shabbona.

Brown, the son of Mrs. Olaf Brown of Lee, suffered a fractured skull, dislocated hip, fractured arm, and shock. His condition was described as "very critical at the Waterman hospital."

SENATE'S INQUIRY GROUP SAYS NOTE IS INDEFENSIBLE

WPA Workers Warned They Must Attend a Political Rally

Washington, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The Senate campaign expenditures committee called "indefensible" today a phrase in a Democratic campaign letter which warned WPA workers that "no excuse will be accepted" for their failure to attend a political rally held in Norristown, Pa., Oct. 29.

The committee said it had been unable to determine how many federal WPA workers were among the 2,500 persons who attended the meeting as a result of the letter, signed by Joseph F. McElwee.

The letter said the meeting was being held "at the direction" of Senator Guffey (D-Pa) and David L. Lawrence, state Democratic committee chairman.

Local Official

McElwee is a member of the Pennsylvania State Compensation board and a local official of the Democratic party.

McElwee later denied, in an affidavit obtained by the Senate committee's investigators, that Guffey or Lawrence had any knowledge of the letter.

Committee investigators who attended said the meeting was addressed only by Ralph M. Bashore, state secretary of labor and industry and secretary of the state Democratic committee. The investigators said no requests for campaign contributions were made at the meeting.

The committee said in a formal statement that McElwee declared the letter had been sent only to state employees despite the fact that WPA workers were specifically addressed in it.

In Other States

Taking up campaigns in other states, the committee said Senator Bulkley (D-Ohio), candidate for re-election, had advised his campaign committee against accepting any further contributions from federal employees. The committee previously said it was informed approximately 50 federal employees had contributed to Bulkley's campaign fund, a practice the committee has ruled to be in violation of the law.

The Ohio senator contended, in a letter made public by Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex) today, that the committee's ruling on this question was in the nature of a new decision and should not be applied retroactively before Oct. 18 when it first was given wide publicity.

CHARGE DISREGARD OF LAWS

Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Charging "wantonly disregard of the U. S. election laws by the Vermont Democratic finance committee in soliciting campaign funds," Harry G. Hunter, chairman of the Vermont Republican committee, today telegraphed a protest to Senator Morris Sheppard, chairman of the Senate campaign expenditures committee.

Hunter specifically charged a "letter with the name of Mrs. Theresa Heidel, director of the Federal Writers Project, on the letterhead, had been sent to WPA, PWA and other federal employees by the Democratic finance committee."

The letter, Hunter charged, was accompanied by a promissory note and a dinner ticket with the

One-Armed Santa

Hollywood, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Most of Hollywood's Christmas cards will be identical except for the senders' signatures.

Jean Hersholt, president of the motion picture relief fund, said today his organization was selling "penny Christmas cards" to Hollywoodites for the same amount they usually spend for expensive ones. The difference in cost will go to the fund.

The card design includes a red and green Santa Claus drawn by Shirley Temple. Her Santa, for some inexplicable reason, has only one hand.

QUIZ FANS GETTING READY FOR BIGGEST QUERY-REPLY GAME

Washington, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The quiz fans already are preparing for the biggest question-and-answer game of all—the 1940 census.

They are firing questions by the hundreds at the census bureau, offering suggestions on what to ask the millions of American residents. Here are some of them:

"If you're not married, why aren't you?"

"Have you a Bible in your home?"

"What boat did your ancestors come over on?"

"What do you read?"

"Are you over six feet tall?"

While bureau officials don't consider these volunteer questions especially helpful, they said a number of pertinent issues have been brought up in some of the correspondence. The new problem of counting the trailer population, for instance, will be important and difficult.

Pertinent Problems

Other things that have happened in the decade since the 1930 count will revolutionize the science of census taking, statisticians say. Here are some of the problems they must figure out before they start the enumeration:

What is a farmer? Since 1930 so many city persons have moved on subsistence farms, farming them part-time when they are out of work, that it is almost impossible to say whether the rural man is a farmer or a business or professional man.

Who is employed? Housewives who take part-time work to augment small family incomes? The man or woman who works only a few months a year? A person who works without salary in the family store or on the farm?

When does a person have an occupation? This problem concerns primarily high school graduates who never have had steady work.

Data to be gathered in the census will be suggested officially by committees of agriculture, manufacturing and business leaders.

Nursery Salesman is Found Dead at Compton

Henry Alvin Cole, 67-year-old nursery salesman, who has made his home in Compton for the past several years, was found dead in his room at the Card hotel this morning about 7:30. He had been a sufferer with a chronic heart ailment which had incapacitated him since last spring. Mr. Cole was born in Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 3, 1871 and is survived by a brother, Simeon Cole of Compton.

Coroner K. B. Segner conducted an inquest this morning at 10 o'clock at which time a jury found that death was due to the chronic heart ailment. The body was then removed to the Torman-Hill mortuary at Paw Paw.

Missing Philadelphian Found in Richmond, Va.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 3.—Detective Captain A. S. Wright said today that Sydney E. Martin, Jr., missing 20-year-old scion of a wealthy Philadelphia family, had been found in Richmond working for an electrical contractor.

The detective said he learned only today that the boy for whom the Philadelphia family had expressed grave concern was boarding at the home of "a Mrs. Otis" in northside Richmond and was working in a midtown shop.

Wright said he had not determined how long Martin had been in Richmond. He was last seen in Philadelphia at a night club on Sept. 15.

Picked Wrong Bus

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Frank Harmon used his bus transfer on the wrong bus last night.

Harmon sat on a street corner curb waiting for a bus. A large vehicle drove up and stopped and a man was assisted to the rear entrance. Frank jumped up, waving his transfer.

"Hey, wait a minute," he shouted. "Can't you see I'm going your way?"

At the Jefferson Park police station it dawned on Harmon he had used his transfer for a ride in a paddy wagon. He was locked up on a drunkenness charge.

DIVIDEND ON DEPOSITS

Payment of a ten per cent dividend on waived deposits in the Farmers State bank of Sublette, amounting to $3,586.16, will be made next month, it was announced today. This will be the fourth payment and will bring the total returned to 40 per cent.

DANCE FRIDAY EVE

Young Republicans were busy today decorating the ball room of the Dixon Masonic temple in preparation for their big dance tomorrow evening, for which the DeKalb College orchestra will furnish music from 9:30 to 12:30. The decorations are in patriotic motif and all are invited.

FILM ARTIST HERE

"Hoot" Gibson, cow boy film artist, with a companion, both fully garbed in true movie western regalia, stopped in Dixon last night for a short time. Gibson was reported to have remained in Dixon long enough to forward two telegrams to Hollywood. Gibson and his companion were said to be motoring across country from New York City to Hollywood.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

Mrs. Gus Blomdahl, aged 67, 1424 Ninth street sustained serious injuries at her home this morning about 8:30. She was standing on a chair on the porch washing windows, when the chair slipped from beneath her. In falling, she sustained fractures of the left leg and shoulder and was removed to the Katherine Shaw Betha hospital in the Staples ambulance.

CUB-PARENT MEETING

A Cub parent meeting of Pack 324, Loveland school, is to be held Friday evening, Nov. 4 at the school building at 7:30. Four new Cubs will be initiated at this meeting and three Cubs will be received in one of the local troops of Boy Scouts. A business session will be held to be followed with a program of entertainment. Parents and all who are interested are invited to be present.

FORMER NEIGHBOR DEAD

Mrs. Ruth Crawford Lievan has received a clipping from a South Dakota newspaper telling of the accidental death of Frank Bickle, 55, of Nemo, a former neighbor of theirs. Bickle was killed when his rifle, with which he had intended shooting coyotes, which had been howling near his place, was discharged when he stumbled while climbing through a fence.

FAST WORK ON BRIDGE

More than 300 yards of concrete were being poured today on the fourth pier of the new Galena avenue bridge. More than 200 oak piles have been driven into the bed of Rock river around which the cement is being poured to form the base of the pier. Preliminary operations are now under way on the third pier for which it is expected that the first pour of concrete will be made next week.

BOY ADMITS THEFT

Chief of Police J. D. Van Bibber this afternoon apprehended a 12-year-old Dixon youth, who admitted having taken 22 one dollar bills from the drawer of a desk at the Fordham & Havens produce plant Tuesday noon. The youngster had enjoyed a brief spending spree and had but $3 of the money left when taken in custody. His name was being withheld pending an investigation into which State's Attorney Edward Jones had been called.

CHECK ARTIST BUSY

JAPS TO REJECT CLAIMS FOR OPEN DOOR IN ORIENT

"Resolute" Refusal Promised United States on Recent Demands

Tokyo, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The influential newspaper Yomiuri said today that if the United States "maintains its claims for the open door and equal opportunity (in China) on the basis of the nine-power treaty Japan will reject them in a resolute manner."

The newspaper, discussing contentions in the United States' note of Oct. 6 demanding maintenance of the open door, declared that the nine-power treaty, signed at Washington, Feb. 6, 1922, "has no significance whatever now that the work of establishing a new order in east Asia has begun."

In the nine-power treaty Japan, the United States and seven other states pledged themselves to adhere to principles of the open door and the independence and territorial integrity of China.

Highly-placed Japanese said that under the "new order" in China wherever foreign rights ran afoul of the "work of reconstruction" they can not be respected.

Premier Prince Konohe broadcast to the nation today—a national holiday as the birthday of the late Emperor Meiji—the government's declaration of policy concerning China made public yesterday.

This declared that the "new order" will have for its foundation a tri-partite relation of mutual aid and co-ordination among Japan, Manchoukuo and China in political, economic and other fields. It expressed confidence other powers would "appreciate" Japan's purposes and "adapt themselves to the new conditions."

CHINA RECRUITS 300,000

Chengtu, China, Nov. 3.—(AP)—A new army of 300,000 recruits is being trained in Szechwan province to fight alongside 400,000 well-drilled Szechwanese in renewed hopes of stopping the invading Japanese.

It was estimated that rice, wheat and other crops in this western province of near 53,000,000 population and 166,000 square miles were big enough to support 2,700,000 fighters for a year—one of the reasons why Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek chose it for the new military base for operations against Japan.

Fervish activity is apparent. Training camps line highways to this provincial capital.

Food supplies are being requisitioned, factories opened and mines developed. Machinery from factories in Japanese-occupied eastern cities was said to be on the way to Szechwan.

In Strong Control

Crowds read eagerly anti-Japanese posters and war bulletins. Air raid defenses are being erected here and at Chungking, the provisional national capital, also in Szechwan.

The national government is in strong control politically, although only last January Szechwan was considered dangerously rebellious.

A dispatch from Chungking today said Chinese guerrillas were harassing the Japanese on increasingly wide fronts, especially in Kwangtung province near the Canton-Hankow railway and also in the Suiyuan district.

Chinese reported Manchurian troops in South Suiyuan had revolted and killed a Japanese commander, afterwards declaring their allegiance to the central government.

Tough on Farmer

Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 3.—(AP)—The opening day of the hunting season was tough on farmer Louis Berger, who wanted to husk corn instead of hunt. First, he was hit by stray shotgun pellets. He said he reprimanded the hunters and they threatened to beat him. Then he set out in his automobile in quest of police and was arrested for going through a red light.

Past Legion Commander Recounts Dangers He Escaped by Driving His Car Carefully

Mt. Vernon, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—It's a little late, but Ted Johnson, Past Commander of the Jefferson American Legion post, tells a Halloween story.

He was driving along a gravel road in Jefferson county Halloween night and suddenly had to turn his car off the road to keep from running over a many-toothed steel harrow placed squarely in the traffic lane.

He became cautious and before reaching this city he found in succession:

A bridge blocked by a telephone pole, laid from bannister to bannister.

A barricade of old bridge lumber.

A two feet log rolled across the road.

And a neat decapitating apparatus made by stringing a strong clothesline wire from a fence post across the road to a telephone pole about windshield high.

Tribute to Warner

At the Amboy Republican meeting last night Rodney M. Brandon of Aurora paid a fine tribute to Chairman H. C. Warner of the Lee county Republican central committee and the county organization:

"In Lee county you have the most energetic and active chairman in Mr. Warner, who through his tireless efforts has assembled the finest county Republican organization in the entire state," he said. "It is to be regretted that every county in the state cannot be organized as effectively as Lee county, and if this were possible, there would be no question of the success of the Republican party in Illinois."

TOBACCO WORKERS AGREE TO RETURN TO OHIO FACTORY

Middletown, Ohio, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Five hundred Ohio National Guardsmen arrived for strike duty today at the P. Lorillard Co. tobacco plant but found that a C. I. O.-affiliated union had capitulated to Gov. Martin L. Davey, caustic critic of the Committee for Industrial Organization.

The Pioneer Tobacco Workers union, which struck Oct. 3 for a closed shop and the checkoff, agreed shortly before midnight to end the dispute and return to work.

C. I. O. Organizer Sam Sponseller said the vote was 557 to 1.

One shift of approximately 500 workers entered the plant at 8 a. m., today without interference. The plant employs 1,100.

As troops were en route from Columbus, Paul W. Fuller and John Owens, regional C. I. O. directors, urged the strikers to return to their jobs "in orderly fashion."

"We do not intend to have our people murdered by a lame duck governor x x x who has proven himself to be America's notorious No. 1 strikebreaker," Fuller wired Sponseller. Fuller said he would file charges with the National Labor Relations Board.

"There was no violence in Middletown, and there was no threat of any by the C. I. O.," Owens said.

Davey, who last year sent troops into Ohio's steel centers to maintain order during the C. I. O. "little steel" strike, said he ordered out the guardsmen yesterday to "preserve law and order" at the request of City Manager Walter J. Braun for protection.

New Armory Completed by First of New Year

Operations have been resumed in the completion of Dixon's beautiful state armory building. Construction was halted Sept. 1 with the completion of the rough operations and the completion was resumed last week. The principal work to be completed is the installation of electric fixtures, laying of the maple flooring, pouring of the colored cement floors in the hallways and the installation of the hardware. Some minor work is also to be done on the heating and water supply system.

The steel shelving and locker system has been received and because of the lateness of the season, it is expected that the landscaping will be delayed until next spring, but the building is expected to be completed in all details and ready for occupancy by Dec. 1st.

Report Negro Confesses Harvey Hammer Slaying

Cleveland, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Cleveland police held Melton Abbott, 32-year-old Negro, today for Harvey, Ill., authorities. They said he confessed the hammer slaying of Mrs. Marzina Patterson, Negro, of Harvey, Oct. 14, 1935.

Detective Horace Jenkins said the suspect was taken into custody here on the "tip" of a woman acquaintance, and readily admitted striking Mrs. Patterson fatally with a hammer three years ago "after a quarrel." Abbott, who has been working on a WPA project here, waived extradition and will be returned to Harvey today, Jenkins said.

Double Kidnap Charges

Rosenblum said the men would be held on double kidnap charges in two other abductions but that no action would be taken against them in the Fried case pending completion of the police basement search and a laboratory analysis of the bones.

Benjamin Farber, 33, a Brooklyn coal dealer who Hoover said paid $1,900 for his release after the gang abducted him April 18, expressed surprise at the detention of Jacknis.

Farber said that when members of the gang had asked him to name an intermediary, he had

POLICE SEARCH KIDNAP GANG'S CLUB HIDE-OUT

No Evidence in Macabre Search Uncovered Under Cement Floor

New York, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Dwight Brantley, head of the New York F. B. I. office, said today federal agents were investigating a possible link between the unsolved kidnap-plotting of 12-year-old Peter Levine of New Rochelle, N. Y., and the newly-captured members of an alleged "kidnap syndicate" who are accused of three kidnappings, two robberies and one murder.

The new turn in the fast-breaking case developed as police exhumed fragments of bones from a cemented "lomb" in the basement of Ukrainian hall on the lower East Side.

Police had expressed a theory that the bones might be from the body of Arthur Fried, young White Plains business man, who was abducted Dec. 4 and held for $200,000 ransom, but this theory collapsed when Chief Medical Examiner Thomas A. Gonzales said an examination of the fragments showed there was "not a human bone in the lot."

Chicken, Beef, Rabbit Bones

He said the bones, some 240 in number, were mostly chicken, beef and rabbit bones.

Dr. Gonzales said two teeth found in the furnace might have come from a pig.

Brantley pointed out that both the Fried and Levine kidnappings occurred in Westchester county, and he disclosed that while federal agents were working on the Levine case several months ago they ran across clues which put them on the trail of the Fried kidnaping.

Those clues, he said, led to the uncovering of the alleged "kidnap syndicate."

Three of the four suspected members appeared in the police line-up shackled to detectives.

They gave their names as William Jacknis, 27, former WPA playground instructor; John Virga, 34, a clothes presser; and Demetrius Gula, 28, a pinball operator.

Admit Police Records

Acting Police Captain Samuel Mooney said all three admitted they had police records.

The men were held without bail after being arraigned on kidnaping charges in connection with the ransom abductions of Benjamin Farber, 33, of Brighton Beach, and Normal Miller, 19, of Brooklyn.

Farber was kidnaped last April 18 and released on $1,800 ransom after an original demand of $25,000.

Miller was kidnaped on July 24 and released on $13,000 ransom after being held 22 hours. The kidnapers first demanded $200,000 for his safe return.

Federal agents said a fourth member of the gang was Joseph Sacoda, 27, named by F. B. I. Chief J. Edgar Hoover as the actual slayer in the Fried case. He is now in Sing Sing for parole violation.

Police meanwhile pushed their search in the Ukrainian lodge basement where gruesome discoveries pointed to the possibility that the place was used as a gangland execution chamber.

Apparent Blood Stains

Police said stains apparently made by blood had been found on a coal chute leading to the cellar. They also announced discovery of a secret room adjoining the basement and expressed belief it might have been used as a gangland execution chamber.

Lieutenant Thomas Curley reported finding a machine gun hidden in the room and said walls of the chamber were marked by about 15 holes seemingly made by bullets.

In a second hidden room, Lieutenant Curley said, a box containing a number of counterfeit Federal revenue stamps and liquor bottle labels had been discovered.

As the search progressed, Assistant District Attorney Jacob J. Rosenberg continued a steady questioning of the three men—Demetrius Gula, 30, a pinball operator; John Virga, 34, a clothes presser, and William Jacknis, a WPA playground instructor accused serving as the "finger man" for the gang.

Double Kidnap Charges

Rosenblum said the men would be held on double kidnap charges in two other abductions but that no action would be taken against them in the Fried case pending completion of the police basement search and a laboratory analysis of the bones.

Benjamin Farber, 33, a Brooklyn coal dealer who Hoover said paid $1,900 for his release after the gang abducted him April 18, expressed surprise at the detention of Jacknis.

Farber said that when members of the gang had asked him to name an intermediary, he had

DON'T MARRY THE MAN

By Jeanne Bowman

Chapter 31
"THEY'RE THROUGH"
 It was impossible to be gay, or even happy in such surroundings, yet Kathleen felt a load had been lifted from her heart and that it was winging up past the singing cables, past the topmost light on the superstructure and on to the mountain stars.

"Have you talked to Donald at all?" Bridget continued.

"Yes," Kathleen answered slowly. "First he told me what he thought of me, then when I could catch my breath, I told him in equal detail what I thought of him. We didn't seem to care for each other," she concluded dryly.

"Tell me," demanded Bridget. "Kathleen told her, told her much more than she realized."

"That explains so much," Bridget observed when she had finished. "Kathleen, have you any idea where Donald was at the time the alarm was given?"

"I overheard Kit-Smyth dictating a letter to father, he said he was at a flying field out of Carstedt."

"But you don't know why he was there. Then listen and see if you can understand why Donald talked to you as he did. When you're engaged you'll understand how time flies without you being aware of it. Norman and I hadn't time for anything but ourselves until dinner was ready, then Donald came in and asked where you were. I felt conscience-stricken and told him you hadn't come over yet. He went after you. He found the note you had left for me. I don't know what you wrote, but there was something in it that sent him flying some place."

Kathleen smiled ruefully. "I congratulated you on your engagement to Donald and told you I was leaving. I only reached Balm's. He made me come in and we had a long talk. He told me about the feud, everything."

Bridget frowned in concentration. "I'm piecing things together," she said. "That was it then. He thought you had left for New York. He went after you. Don't you see, dear, Donald was rushing after you to bring you back because he loved you. He was giving up every MacDonald tradition and prejudice because you meant more to him than they did. And in this mood, this eagerness to offer you everything he had, Kit-Smyth found him. I don't know what Kit-Smyth said but it's safe to believe he destroyed this image Donald worshiped. And Donald, heart-broken over the disaster and breathless over you, came straight from Kit-Smyth to you."

Kathleen nodded. "Yes, I know how he felt because I felt just like that. I've laughed a lot over 'mortal wounds and slabs in the heart,' but they're real. Bridget, I felt as though I'd been mortally wounded. I didn't care much about living for a while."

Abject Defeat
 Bridget stood up. "Let's go over to the commissary. I'm cold and hungry and I'll bet you haven't had any dinner."

Kathleen followed her but she was not looking towards the big building, her glances were searching the few men around the mouth of the mine, looking for one.

Norman found the girls in the commissary. He was taking Bridget home.

"You'd better get some rest, Cleo. They won't be through before mid-morning."

The name Cleo sounded strange to Kathleen, then she caught the import of what he had said. "Mid-morning?"

"Six A. M. had been Balm's deadline, thirty-six hours."

"Where's Donald?" she asked.

Norman gave her a quick searching glance. "Below. I can't pry him loose. He's wrecking himself with worry."

Kathleen made her decision as they drove away. She would go down there to him.

She couldn't. The technical experts were in charge now. The trained rescue crews from the United States Bureau of Mines. They needed the skips.

Kathleen looked at the objects they were carrying and shuddered. Canvas cots and canvas bags. The bags would be needed if they broke through too late.

The mine doctor rushing along stopped and looked at Kathleen. "Go to bed, girl," he ordered. "I'm setting up an emergency hospital on the 1580 level. I'll need you up here, get some rest."

"But the hospital down there... what does it mean?"

"It means we're preparing for life," the man answered stoutly. "And the only life there'll be left will need resuscitation in the shortest possible time."

Kathleen nodded. The medical men were prepared to save minutes. Time was that precious.

She knew she couldn't sleep, but she did to awaken with a start and find the sun high in the heavens. She sat up alarmed. A deathly silence hovered over the place.

No one was in the hospital, no one even in the emergency room. She rushed out of doors. It seemed the entire place was deserted, the only sign of life the swinging cable, the throb of the motor.

Ten o'clock. Mid-morning.

A man appeared from the commissary. Kathleen hurried to him.

"What news?" she begged.

"Not much. They gave up trying to break through first, drilled in with an air hole; hope to shoot through medical supplies if there's anyone on the other end can use them."

"And when was that?"

"Several hours ago... wait, here comes a skip."

"Dog-weary muckers stumbled out. There was no sign of hope on their worn faces, nothing but abject defeat."

"Yes, the air hole went through. MacDonald called, there was no answer."

They went on their way and Kathleen and the man stood in silence.

His clumsy hand patted Kathleen's shoulder. "Don't take that as final. They may be through to another level, may be only a pocket there. Then too, the men fall in a stupor sometimes; lay there hours before it's too late."

"There's life!"

Kathleen nodded, then tensed. Another skip was up, a man in a slicker, engineer or official was running, calling as he ran. "We're through—get the canaries! Get MacDonald!"

"They're through!"

Where the scene had been deserted it was now thronged and mad cries of joy took up the song

"They're through! They've broken through!"

Men in grotesque costumes came running out, slipping oxygen tanks over their heads as they ran, swinging cages with tiny fluffy canaries in them; little yellow birds that peeped with dismay, unaware of their hero roles. More sensitive to poison air than any living thing, they would collapse before the insidious air crept into the lungs of unsuspecting men.

Only a relay crew; the others, the picked men, were already down; they'd been there waiting for hours.

Then Kathleen saw Donald MacDonald and she felt as though her heart had welled up and was pushing on out of her breast towards him. He was running. Someone was handing him an oxygen tank, shouting at him as they kept pace.

Kathleen called to him just as he slipped the mask over his face. He seemed to hesitate as though wondering if he had heard a voice, then adjusted the gear, stepped into the skip and dropped from sight.

She ran on to the mine collar.

"He's going in first," someone said. "He served his time on the crew; felt he ought to take the first risk. That's Your Donald; if anyone has to die to find out what's on the other side, he's going to be that one."

Kathleen sank onto the timber pile, tears coursing down her cheeks. "And I said I never wanted to see him again."

She sat huddled in a tight, tense position. He had loved her, Bridget said he had and she, well she knew it too. Yet she had let him go down believing she hated him. She could have given him the chance to explain but she'd listened to her pride.

Moments passed. Cars came down from Neutrality, came over from the MacDonald mines. People crowded into a compact mass, miners' wives in the foreground. Kathleen marveled at the stoical calm of these women who waited at this, the eleventh hour, with no show of emotion. Yet, how they must feel! After their long hours of waiting, how they must wish to rush through the cordon and fight their way down to that walled-off hole to learn for themselves the fate of their men.

Moments passed, melted into half hours, hours. The spring sun beat down in a silent golden pall. Few words were spoken. The skip hadn't come up, it seemed, for eons.

And then the cable rattled, the roar of the approaching cage was heard. Every breath in the crowd was held, then expelled in a long sigh as Morgan stepped out, his face white.

"MacDonald is through. The men are all there. He says there is life. That's all for now."

Later, a second report. "Jock Arthur, unconscious but breathing, first man carried out."

Kathleen knew the next hour was the longest in her life. The skip was coming up slowly now. And each trip brought with it a stretcher and on the stretcher a silent figure, but with life.

Kathleen was called into action. There weren't enough nurses. Oxygen had been fed slowly, now there must be nourishment induced with equal slowness. These lives which had been so close to death must be brought back slowly, lest the feeble connecting line break.

She scanned each face. They were mostly strangers to her. And they were all younger men than Balm's. Why couldn't they waken and tell her of him?

Policeman and Liquor Suspect Killed in Duel
 Springfield, Mass., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Patrolman Edward T. Long, 37, wounded in the stomach last night in a liquor raid shooting that cost the lives of a fellow policeman and an apartment tenant, was given a better than even chance to recover today.

The dead policeman was Patrolman Carl Rolf, 41 and married. Detective Lieutenant John J. Crowley identified the other victim as Alex Greski, 52.

Crowley said Rolf and Long were shot when they entered a bedroom in search of liquor, after pushing their way into Greski's apartment.

Long and Patrolman Preston C. O'Brien, replied to the burst of gunfire, and felled Greski. He died soon afterward in Wesson hospital.

FORMER PRAIRIEVILLE WOMAN IS CALLED BY MAKER

Funeral of Mrs. Jane Newcomer Will Be Held at Sterling Tomorrow

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Newcomer, 83, widow of the late Samuel D. Newcomer of Prairieville, will be held at St. John's Lutheran church in Sterling at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, the Rev. A. H. Keck, Jr., pastor of the church officiating. Burial will be in the family lot in the Prairieville cemetery. Mrs. Newcomer passed away at a Sterling hospital Tuesday evening, death being caused by pneumonia.

Native of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Newcomer was born Esther Jane Eshelman, Feb. 7, 1855, in Pennsylvania. On Feb. 7, 1884, she was married to Samuel D. Newcomer. The couple began housekeeping on a farm near Prairieville in March and lived there continuously up to the time of Mr. Newcomer's death, May 21, 1915. She went to Sterling in 1920 and had lived ever since in the residence, 603 Second avenue. She is survived by five sisters and one brother, all living in Pennsylvania. One sister, Mrs. Emma McFadden of Pittsburgh, Pa., is expected to arrive Thursday morning to attend the funeral.

"Aunt Jane," as Mrs. Newcomer was affectionately known to many, was one of the most beloved of women in the communities in which she lived, and the following tribute has been paid to her by an intimate friend and neighbor, which expresses the sentiments of all who knew her:

"For months she had not been well, but went about in her usual cheerful way, though she could not conceal the fact that she was suffering and friends were much concerned over her. On Sept. 9 she was taken to the Sterling public hospital and on the following Tuesday submitted to an operation, which offered the only hope of her recovery, and that a very doubtful one. She rallied in a remarkable manner after the operation and her anxious friends began to hope she might be spared to them for some months at least. After about three weeks in the hospital, Mrs. Newcomer was removed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sier. Here, surrounded by tender care, a host of loving friends and a constant profusion of flowers, she steadily grew stronger. Then came suddenly an attack of pneumonia, and on Saturday, Oct. 29, she was taken to the hospital again, but the skill of physicians and nurses were of no avail.

Life of Beautiful Service.

"Though always quiet and self-effacing, Aunt Jennie will be sorely missed. Her home was a neighborhood center of helpfulness and good cheer. It was to her that everyone turned for the little acts of kindness so necessary to the welfare of the community. She helped to care for the sick, lifted the load of work when it became too heavy, looked after the little ones when mother was away, gave away her flowers without stint, and found her way into homes where there was grief and need of cheer. She never failed her friends, neighbors and nephews and nieces by adoption. Her devotion to her church and the Social Circle of St. John's was phenomenal. Every Thursday found her in her place in the service at the sanctuary. Night and day, in season and out, her tireless hands were busy working for her church. Her reply to protests that she was doing too much was 'It's alright; I love to help.' She lived far from those of her own family, and became the 'aunt' of literally hundreds of all ages and classes. Her nearest neighbors would have had to stop and think had someone suddenly asked her name, for she was just 'Aunt Jennie' always and to all."

BY ARMISTICE DAY

Washington, Nov. 3 — (AP)—American negotiators, spurred by Secretary Hull's appeal to put "redoubled vigor" into the reciprocal trade program, expressed hope today of having the British and Canadian pacts ready by Armistice Day.

They expect, if the agreements are completed, that fact would be mentioned in the Armistice Day speeches by government leaders in the United States, Britain and Canada.

Approximately 554,296 persons are employed on the railways of Great Britain.

Ladies of the middle 19th century used horseradish as a gentle skin stimulant.

Still Coughing?

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

"The thing this nation needs today, more than any other one thing is the Farewell address by President Roosevelt"

From an Address Delivered October 28, 1938,
By Republican Chairman Henry C. Warner.

The thought was not original with Chairman Warner. He but echoed the wish of every reactionary who has opposed the constructive and humane acts of President Roosevelt.

Who are those reactionaries?

The money lenders who oppose laws providing home loans and farm loans at interest rates which the borrowers could pay.

The industrial group which has grown rich through government subsidy in the form of a tariff, and who oppose a government policy to bring about parity prices for the farmer.

The selfish employer who is now prevented from exploiting child labor and from working his employees long hours at low wages.

The stock market gambler whom the Securities and Exchange Commission prevents from foisting spurious stocks upon the buying public.

The heartless people who oppose the Social Security program by which the Federal Government contributes to old age pensions and to aid for crippled and dependent children in every state in the Union.

The selfish citizen who opposes maintenance of C. C. C. camps that have been the salvation of thousands of young men.

The money group who oppose sound banking laws and insurance of bank deposits.

The Republican politicians who have been repudiated in forty-six of our forty-eight states because of their reactionary program which culminated in the Hoover panic.

It is well to remember that through all those years of Republican misrule, Chairman Warner was boss of the Republican party in Lee County; he defended every act of his party that brought about the worst period of depression in our national history. It is well for the voters to recall, before accepting Boss Warner as their prophet, all the glowing promises he made during those years. Will you go forward with Roosevelt or backward with Warner?

"Farewell to Roosevelt"—What A War Cry!

Farewell to the hope of the aged for help in their declining years.

Farewell to the aspirations of needy young people for help in education.

Farewell to the hope of the toiler for living wages and decent working conditions.

Farewell to the hope of abolishing slums and sweatshops and child labor.

Farewell to public confidence in sound banks with insured deposits.

Farewell to the dream of the workmen for unemployment insurance and social security.

Farewell to Federal aid for building schools and hospitals and furnishing work for our men.

Farewell to the policy of saving homes and farms from foreclosure.

Farewell to the investor's assurance of sound security and strict regulation of stock markets.

Farewell to the administration and the policy of a courageous president who has dared to value men above money -- to whom humanity is more important than wealth. Return again to the rule of the greedy few over the despairing many.

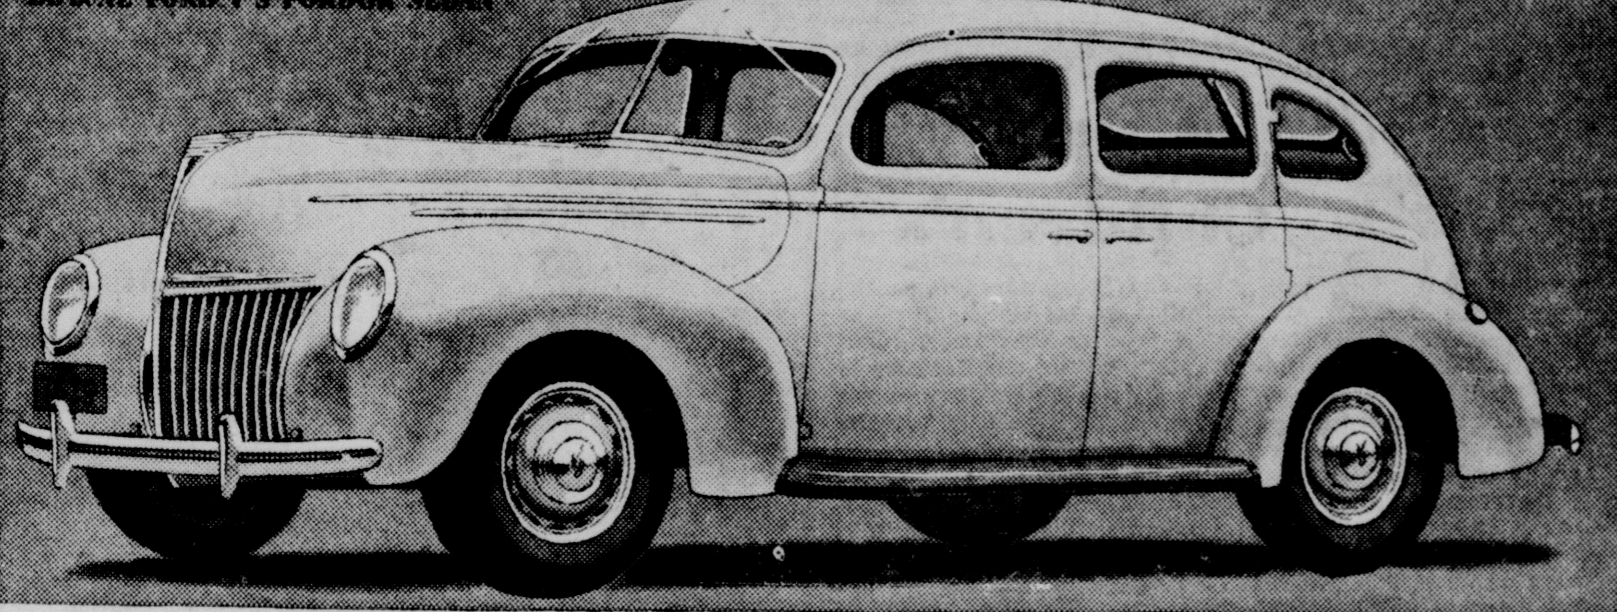

That is the Republican platform

Let us rather say "Farewell to the Republican Party."

Announcing the NEW FORD V-8 CARS for 1939

GREATER VALUE for every motorist has been built into the two new Ford V-8 cars for 1939. They further express the forward-looking policy of the Ford Motor Company—traditional Ford dependability and economy plus progressive engineering.

Each car is distinctive in design, yet each has something of the fine streamlining of the Lincoln-Zephyr—recognized style leader for the industry. Interior appointments are in keeping with outward beauty. Every detail is styled for good taste and good service.

Both are big, roomy cars, equipped with hydraulic brakes and powered with the V-8 engine that gives you so much extra smoothness and efficiency. This year, the quiet performance of the V-8 engine has been matched by the new quiet built into every part of the car.

The 1939 Fords bring you greater riding ease on every road. New seat construction, flexible transverse springs, and big, hydraulic shock absorbers provide triple-cushioned comfort.

Both 1939 Ford cars are Ford-priced for greater dollar value. Both bring new meaning to the Ford phrase, "The Quality Car in the Low-price Field."

VOTE REPUBLICAN

The reasons why more people are going to vote the Republican ticket this year than for some years past are so obvious that it seems hardly necessary to point them out. The nation over, there will be a decided trend toward the Republican standard for reasons of patriotism, preservation of American institutions, individual freedom, the freedom for which our forefathers fought and died, liberty and the right of the pursuit of prosperity and happiness.

And nowhere will there be a more pronounced trend to the G. O. P. than in Illinois and in Lee County.

Of course, the Republican ticket in Lee County and in this senatorial and congressional district, will be elected by a wide margin. The only question is how wide and The Telegraph predicts a greater Republican majority here than in several years.

The Republican ticket offered the voters at this election is far above the average, which is saying a great deal, and while The Telegraph does not believe it is necessary to convince voters of the merits of the various candidates, we do wish to urge the voters to make it their business to get to the polls and vote next Tuesday and not to let their confidence in the success of the ticket lull them into a false security with the belief that the ticket will win anyway and will not need their help.

The Democratic job-holders over the state and the Kelly-Nash machine in Chicago form a powerful opposition and it is vitally necessary that all of the voters register their opinions at the polls to bring forth a decisive and unmistakable answer to the spendthrift politicians who at present seem to be attempting to bankrupt and enslave this country.

Go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for the Republican candidates.

NON-VOTERS ARE A HANDICAP

According to all the newspapers, the coming congressional elections are a highly important event in American politics. We shall see, through them, how much of a reaction there is against the New Deal; the voters will get their chance to express themselves, and in one way or another our democracy will register its verdict on this, that and the other thing.

So registration lists are up, interest is at fever heat, and all the signs indicate a heavy vote.

But when the smoke has cleared away and all the votes have been counted, it will be found—as usual—that only a little better than half of the electorate bothered to go to the polls at all. The stay-at-home who never pokes his nose into a polling booth will once more be a significant if little-noticed feature of the election.

There are lots of reasons for this. A certain amount of this stay-away business is due to the fluid nature of our population; people move about, find themselves ineligible to vote, fail to transfer their registration, forget about the absentee-ballot provision, or through some other oversight are unable to vote even though they would rather like to.

Another thing which must account for a large proportion of the absentees is the fact that in many districts—probably in most—the outcome of the election is pretty clear before the votes are cast. Many a man, in such circumstances, reasons something like this: "Well, I'd vote for Candidate Blank, but he's going to win anyhow and I'll be pretty busy Tuesday so it won't hurt if I don't vote."

But when all such excuses are made, the fact remains that there are some millions of the citizens who fail to vote simply because they are too lazy, too indifferent or too cynical about politics to take the trouble.

Of course, this is a free country. The right to vote carries with it the undisputable right to refrain from voting.

Nevertheless, the non-voting voter is decidedly a handicap to democracy. For if voting is a privilege, it is also a duty. The theory of democracy assumes that each man will perform that duty; each man who fails does his bit to weaken the democracy he lives under.

For the "special interests"—the pressure groups, the political machines, the factions, the something-for-nothing people—none of these ever fails to vote. It is only the man who has nothing at stake but the welfare of the country as a whole who stays away from the polls. And because he does stay away, a disciplined minority can, and very often does, run things with scant regard for the interest of the whole.

That is why non-voting is a peril to democracy. And if you have been a non-voter, now is an excellent time for you to think over and decide to stop being one.

REORGANIZATION—BY WHOM?

Reports continue that President Roosevelt, in the coming session of congress, will resume his campaign for passage of a reorganization measure. Reorganization is an improper term. It might be said that the various bureaus, boards and commissions need not reorganization, but organization. Some step creating order out of the chaos of tangled situation is desirable.

The question is this: Who is to do the reorganizing? President Hoover sought some measure of authority to bring about greater efficiency and economy, but a congress dominated by democrats and insurgents refused to permit it. They refused to permit it because they wanted the glory, if any, to go to some one else.

President Roosevelt sought dictatorial powers toward reorganization, and the congress withheld that authority out of a wise respect for the form of our government.

If there was to be a culling out of unnecessary appendages at Washington it will have to be done, first, by some one who has power to do it, and last, by some one who can be depended upon actually to do what he says he is going to do. Congressmen alone will find it difficult to throw out of office some of their most influential constituents.

If President Roosevelt were given the task of reorganizing toward economy and efficiency, would he carry out that program?

He made it appear he could restore industry so as to reemploy the millions of men without jobs. "It is no time for delay . . . and we of the democratic party will not wait." Has that promise been kept?

He pledged himself toward a 25 per cent reduction of federal expenses. Has he made a reduction, or has he doubled expenditures?

"We condemn the extravagance of the farm board," said Mr. Roosevelt, campaigning for his first term. How do New Deal farm aid ventures compare, in effectiveness and economy, with those of the board he condemned? Has he restored foreign markets, or destroyed them?

"We condemn . . . the unsound policy of restricting agricultural products to the demands of domestic markets." Have the plowings-under, the slaughter of animals and the limitation of crops coincided with the campaign statement?

"Yes, we are on the way back—not by mere chance; not by a turn of the cycle. We are coming back more soundly than ever before because we planned it that way, and don't let anybody tell you differently." That was in 1935.

This is 1938! there are 9 million unemployed and the federal debt is greater hour by hour.

Whom shall we depend upon for reorganization of government agencies?

GRADING THE TEACHERS

Prof. Fred A. Russell of the University of Illinois college of commerce proposes that students be permitted to pass judgment upon their teachers in regard to traits of personality that affect their usefulness in the classroom. The idea has possibilities, but even if it were put into practice it probably would not bring about an educational Utopia.

Teachers could not be graded properly by students in regard to educational qualifications, for these already have been passed upon by competent authorities. Some teachers, however, are better educators than others. One instills education only after a struggle; another passes it on with ease. One student's poison is another's meat. Methods of a certain teacher will be effective upon one pupil, but leave another cold. Rare is the instructor who can adapt himself to every personality under his guidance.

If a teacher has a personality defect making him ineffective with a whole class, the class might properly report upon it—and the report would likely reach a governing body already aware of the situation.

Washington—More trouble than they could dream is brewing for the beleaguered and belembred members of the Federal Communications Commission.

The day is not far distant when some of them probably will be summoned to the White House desk and blithely given the opportunity of resigning or being fired.

According to the latest decision of the Supreme Court, the President cannot fire members of a quasi-judicial agency such as the FCC. However, presidential investigators have dug up so much dirt on certain members of the Communications Commission that the chances are they would prefer to resign rather than face public investigation.

If they do not, Roosevelt seriously considers firing the whole lot, citing the reasons why, and letting them appeal to the Supreme Court. When the Court was preponderantly anti-New Deal, it held that Roosevelt had illegally removed Federal Trade Commissioner William Humphrey.

Previous to this decision, however, it had given another ruling just the opposite. So with a couple of New Dealers now on the Court, Roosevelt advisers believe that the Nine might reverse themselves.

Note—Seven men strong, the FCC members have been fighting together ever since their appointment. Some are Hoover hold-overs, some Roosevelt men. The radio industry long has been disgusted with the whole commission.

Next In Line

If the President finally decides not to name Prof. Felix Frankfurter to the Supreme Court, the choice will lie between these two men:

Thurman Arnold, Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Anti-Trust Division. He comes from Wyoming.

Senator Louis Schwellenbach, 100 per cent New Dealer from Washington.

Wallace's Dog

When Henry Wallace went west on his recent speaking tour, he had to change one of his speeches on short notice, and eliminate a dog story he meant to tell. Here is the story:

A farmer took his dog with him into a field where he wanted to dynamite some rocks. He placed a piece of dynamite under the first rock, then connected the fuse with another piece under the next rock, and so on, under a series of rocks along the field.

When he lit the fuse, the dog was standing near the first rock. The explosion made him jump all the way to the next rock. As he landed there, the second charge went off, and he leaped again, this time landing by the third rock. The dog kept leaping down the field, propelled by the repeated blasts.

Wallace's moral: In the field of finance, successive charges went off in 1929, 1930, 1931, and 1932, and each time private capital got scared, like the farmer's dog, and ran until the next blast scared it more.

Own Fault

For longshoreman Harry Bridges and other CIO chiefs, there is bitter irony in Representative Martin Dies' vendetta against them.

Had it not been for the president of the CIO Oil Workers union, Harvey Freming, Dies might not have been as cocky as he is today.

During last spring's primaries, CIO leaders wanted to go after Dies' scalp. A large bloc of oil and maritime unionists are in Dies' Texas district, and CIO strategists figured that with the administration sore at him, there was a good chance of beating him.

But Freming balked the plan. An old buddy of Dies, he objected to the fight, assured CIO bosses he could handle him.

When Dies, after months of unyielding opposition to the wage-hour bill, abruptly reversed himself and voted for it on the final count, it looked as if Freming did have the drag he claimed. But once renominated and safe for another two years, Dies quickly reverted to his original anti-labor hostility. And to the anguish of the regretful CIOers, he has been making it hot for them ever since.

Note—Recently Freming's Oil Workers Union adopted a resolution condemning Dies and his investigating committee.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

A fascinating pastime with Albert Edward Wiggam, S. Sc., Author of "THE MARKS OF A CLEAR MIND."

IS THE CLAIM TRUE THAT IT IS THE BRIGHTEST BOYS AND GIRLS WHO LEAVE THE COUNTRY AND SMALL TOWNS FOR THE CITIES? YOUR OPINION—1

"The keenest anguish known to human nature is the pain of a new idea." (Bagehot). We hope this column brings you pain.

Answer to Question No. 1

1. Practically all mental tests, as well as school grades, show higher scores for city children, but whether this is due to better environment or natural brightness is not certain. However, a new study is reported in the American Journal of Sociology by two sociologists, Glat and Clark, in which they had given mental tests to over 2500 high school pupils in Kansas rural communities in 1922. They have recently found that 964, or over one-third, had migrated to the cities and they are mostly the ones who were in the higher mental scores in 1922. This would indicate that the brighter boys and girls form most of the migrants to the cities.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. No, and it never meant to state that men are created equal in intelligence, health, bodily strength or character. It meant two things, first, that all men should have equal rights before the law and, second, that the Colonists were the equal in all these rights with the citizens of England. Several of the men who signed the Declaration owned slaves and nearly all were aristocrats and they were the last men on earth to believe that men were equal in their natural abilities or character. They did believe that all men should be equal before the law and that every man's house should be his castle—the things for which we, with all descendants of England, will always fight for.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. Yes, far more dangerous. If our country is ever destroyed it will be not by its ignoramuses or by its educated people—but by its half-educated people. They are the most dangerous persons in the world—especially in a democracy where they can actually put their half-baked ideas into effect. The half-educated person reads one book on the old laissez-faire economy and is convinced it is the salvation of the world. Then he reads another book on Communism or Fascism and, lo! here is humanity's salvation! He does not know history—especially the history of ideas—sufficiently to see them in proper perspective. He does not know society—he does not know anything well enough to be entrusted with power. Tomorrow: Should couples applying for divorce be tried by lawyers or psychologists? Copyright 1938, John F. ## John M. Coffee of Tacoma, Wash.

Forty -one years old, built like a lumberjack and a lusty scrapper, Coffee has a 100 per cent New Deal voting record and was Maverick's right-hand lieutenant. After Maverick fell by the wayside in the primaries, he wrote his House followers urging Coffee as their new leader. The suggestion met with immediate favor.

Coffee's popularity is not confined to Capitol Hill. He is also a favorite of the president and the inner White House circle.

Note—Congressman Coffee is a brother-in-law of Senator Homer Bone of Washington. They disagree on many things.

Merry-Go-Round

Both of Franklin D. Roosevelt's parents were Mayflower descendants. . . . Mrs. Harry Woodring was a portrait painter before she married the secretary of war. She does not paint her children, because "they are too wiggly."

. . . WPA's Federal Theatre Project is swamped with manuscripts of plays. They come in at the rate of 50 a week, to be passed on by Emmett Lavery, himself a playwright, author of "First Legion" . . . The engraved invitation to the reception for Cuba's strong man Batista, who comes to Washington next week, bears the chaste phrase "Uniforms and Decorations." This is ample. It will bring out all the medals and ribbons which the diplomatic corps usually must suppress in democratic Washington. . . . Incidentally, Batista's host, Cuban Ambassador Fraga, has only one decoration. Some of his guests will sport half a dozen. . . . Private industry once was loath to set up factories in a new government-resettled homestead. But now they are eager. They find stable, intelligent labor.

SNAKE PAYS BILL.

Rolling Hills, Calif.—(AP)—Franklin French, 15, kept seven rattlesnakes for pets and eventually he got bit. The boy's mother rushed him to the hospital, and after he was out of danger decided it would be a good lesson to make him pay his own hospital bill.

The only way Franklin could raise the money was to sell the snake that bit him.

Corinthian Shrine, W. S. of J., to Entertain Supreme Noble Prophetess

Members of Corinthian Shrine No. 40, White Shrine of Jerusalem, are completing preparations for entertaining a distinguished visitor on Friday evening, Nov. 11. Mrs. Veta Olsen of Chicago, supreme noble prophetess, Mrs. Olsen, who is a member of Maran Atha shrine, is to be the guest of Mrs. Carrie Coe, worthy high priestess of the local shrine, and Sigurd Jensen, watchman of shepherds of Damascus shrine, Chicago, will be the guest of Elwin Bunnell, watchman of shepherds in Corinthian shrine.

Guest officers from shrines in Chicago, Rockford, Rock Island, Freeport, DeKalb, Morrison, Princeton, Peru, Ottawa and Mendota, Ill., and Davenport, Iowa, will be serving the stations. The initiatory ritual will be exemplified at 8 o'clock in Brinton Memorial Masonic temple, and will be followed by refreshments.

Preceding the meeting, Mrs. Coe will be entertaining at dinner in compliment to the honor guests, her party numbering 12 or more.

Last evening, Mrs. Coe was guest of honor at a Guest Night meeting of Damascus shrine in Chicago, having been invited to serve as worthy high priestess by Mrs. Medora Webster. More than 250 guests, including many visitors from surrounding shrines, were present.

Before the meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Coe were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sigurd Jensen. Mrs. Coe was presented with numerous gifts during the shrine session.

Recent Bride is Honored at Amboy

Mrs. Elizabeth Murtaugh and her daughter, Rose, were co-hostesses at bridge at their home in Amboy last evening, complimenting a recent bride, Mrs. James Thompson (Genevieve Cotter).

Auction hands were played at three tables, with the honoree receiving the favor for high score. Mrs. Paul Frye of Dixon received the all-out prize.

A mock wedding ceremony was performed during the evening, and refreshments were served by the hostesses. The group's gift for Mrs. Thompson was a bedspread.

Making up the party were Mrs. Paul Frye, Mrs. William Lafferty, and Miss Anne McGuire of Dixon, Mrs. Harold Carroll, Mrs. Roy Anderson, Mrs. Theo. Biester, Mrs. Ella Cotter, Misses Zetta Boehle, Jayne Leake, Mary Meade, Eleanor Scott, Marie Ross, Eileen Cotter, the honoree, and the hostesses.

"Pinocchio" to be Seen Friday Night At Lincoln School

With the cast going into its final rehearsals and last-minute preparations rapidly nearing completion, everything will soon be in readiness for tomorrow evening's double performance of the operetta, "Pinocchio," at the new Lincoln grade school. Curtains will be drawn for the opening show at 6:30 o'clock, and the second performance is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Audiences are going to be charmed with "Pinocchio," as they follow the strange adventures of the beloved wooden doll, whose fairly tale role is to be interpreted by Leroy Sherman. Appearing with him will be nearly a score of little friends who dance and play their way through the story.

Special music will be furnished by a number of choruses, and the first and second grade rhythm bands. Sue Nelles is student director of the first grade band, composed of the following members:

LAWYER WHO KEPT LAKE FRONT OPEN IN CHICAGO DEAD

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(AP)—George Peck Merrick, 76, prominent attorney, who waged a successful 20-year fight to keep Chicago's downtown lake front free of buildings, died last night in Evanston, Ill., his home.

Merrick, who had among his clients James A. Patten, the wheat king, suffered a stroke October 1, and contracted pneumonia Tuesday.

He was born in Manteno, Ill., Oct. 4, 1862, and received his law degree from Northwestern University in 1884. Twenty-five years later the university conferred an honorary degree upon him. He was general counsel for the university for many years and resigned last year as member of the board of trustees.

It was in 1890 that, as attorney for Montgomery Ward, he began his legal fight to keep Chicago's lakefront downtown park, Grant Park, free of buildings.

The Marshall Field $8,000,000 museum was to be erected in the park and Ward got out an injunction against it. The legal struggle was carried to the Illinois Supreme Court which 20 years later finally decided the Grant Park lake front was to be perpetually open. The museum was placed at the south edge of the park.

In 1885 Merrick married Grace Thompson of Galesburg, Ill., who died in 1912. Three children survive: Clinton, Mrs. Grace Breyspraak, both of Evanston, and Thompson, of San Francisco.

Funeral services will be tomorrow at 2 P. M. in the First Methodist church chapel in Evanston.

Former CIO Organizer Files Slander Suit

Cleveland, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Vincent Favorito, of Cleveland, former organizer of the C. I. O. Steel Workers Organizing committee, filed a $100,000 slander suit today against John P. Frey, president of the metal trades department of the A. F. of L., as an outgrowth of Frey's testimony before the Dies committee investigating un-American activities.

Favorito's petition said Frey called the plaintiff a "labor spy" and a "member of the Communist party." It asserted Frey described Favorito as "an undercover operator for the McGuffin detective agency, with headquarters in Youngstown," Ohio. Favorito denied the truth of these appellations.

KRIEGER OFF FOR NEW YORK BUT HE WON'T BE FIGHTING

Seattle, Nov. 3.—(AP)—A new middleweight champion boards a train for New York today, but he won't be fighting back there for two reasons.

Hymie Kaplan, garrulous manager of the new champ, Solly Krieger, enumerated the reasons, with gestures. They are:

1.—Krieger has a lump behind his left ear the size of a cue ball and won't be able to train for at least three or four weeks.

2.—Krieger has a contract with Seattle's promoter, Nate Druksman to fight his next match here, and Kaplan said he told New York's promoter, Mike Jacobs, yesterday that Krieger would not fight the winner of the Fred Apostoli-Young Corbett III bout under Jacobs' auspices.

"Jacobs didn't give Krieger a break in New York so we're going to fight for Druksman here first," Kaplan said.

Informed that the New York Boxing Commission was going to "consider" whether to recognize Krieger's title claim, Kaplan said: "If General Phelan (commission chairman) wants to be a stooge for Jacobs and make the same mistake he did when Al Hostak won the title, that's all right with me."

Hostak was back at his Georgetown home today, a badly-banged up boy, after losing the title he won from Freddie Steele three short months previously.

AGAINST AMENDMENT
Chicago, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Ray Edmondson, state chairman of labor's non-partisan league and state president of the United Mine Workers, urged defeat today of banking amendment to the Illinois constitution, which will be voted upon Tuesday.

He said that "a reactionary one-third membership" of either legislative house could defeat the proposed amendment. At present, banking changes are approved by a majority of the legislature and then voted upon at a general election.

LOCAL CHAPTER, RED CROSS, HAS GIVEN SERVICE

Report of Home Department Shows Activities of Lee Co. Chapter

The annual roll call of the American Red Cross will begin November 11 and continue until Thanksgiving Day. This is the one opportunity during the year for every public spirited citizen to renew his or her membership to help this worthy organization in its humanitarian work. Following is a report given by Albert Ruggles of Dixon, chairman of the Home Service department of the Lee County Red Cross:

"The Home Service department of the Lee county chapter, American Red Cross has during the past year served 163 veterans and their dependents with their claims with the Veterans' Administration. Through the activities of this service, between eight and ten thousand dollars is being paid to veterans and their dependents annually in compensations and pensions. Treatment has been secured for a large number of disabled veterans in government hospitals and in some cases where emergency hospitalization was necessary the chapter provided transportation and an attendant to take the veteran to the government hospital. We are continually being called on by needy veterans and their families, and where the case warrants the need is taken care of. The veterans organizations and their auxiliaries are cooperating with the chapter to the fullest extent in our effort to carry out the Red Cross obligation to the veterans."

Other Services

"While the major activities of the Home Service Department have been to the war veteran and his dependents, there is a service being rendered that the public knows very little about and that is the Red Cross obligation to our 'peace time army, navy and marine corps.' In every army camp, navy and marine corps base, a representative of the Red Cross is on duty and in the course of a year over forty per cent of the enlisted men are given financial aid or some other valuable service. For instance the enlisted man's pay is small. The army provides for them, but when the man gets into domestic or social difficulties it is the Red Cross which comes to his aid. It is not unusual for the local chapter to receive a telegram asking that we visit an enlisted man's family and report conditions back to the war or navy departments. In a number of cases our recommendations for emergency furlough was granted to the enlisted man and a loan made to him by the Red Cross so that he could return home to see a sick member of the family. Another case, the enlisted man's father became permanently disabled and was unable to support the family any longer. The chapter investigated the case for the War department and on the receipt of our report the boy was given an honorable discharge and was returned home so that he could contribute to the support of the family."

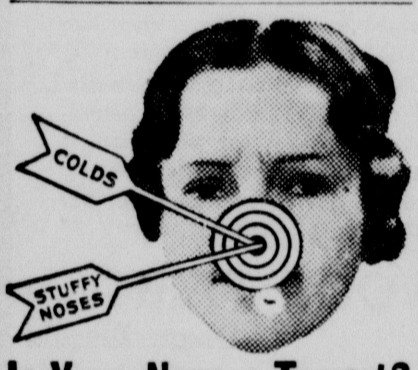

In acknowledgement of this service by the National Red Cross, the military establishment gives the highest proportion of membership to the Red Cross of any group in the country."

TO "MODERNIZE" PRISON

Nashville, Tenn. (Nov. 3.—AP)—Tennessee, seeking to "modernize" the treatment of its convicts, will abandon prison stripes and lashings as disciplinary measures. Institutions Commissioner Geo. Cate said "discipline cells" would be installed. These cells would be rooms "of solid concrete without windows" having ventilation through steel doors and little or no natural light. The commissioner said blue cotton pants and shirts would be substituted for the stripes.

NEW COMMITTEE FOR BOY SCOUTS DISCUSSES WORK

Reports Given Last Night at Meeting at City Hall

The newly organized Dixon Boy Scout central committee held its first meeting Wednesday evening at the city hall with W. E. Beamblossom presiding. The following members were present and participated in the discussions and plans: William Slothower, Gerald Jones, Cal Tyler, W. H. McMaster, Elwin Bunnell, Rev. James J. Burke, C. J. McLean, W. W. Clark, Paul Armstrong, Rev. C. L. Wagner, John Godt, Willis Hood, Philip Reilly, Enos Keithley, Laverne McMillan, F. A. Hanson and Ed Rowley.

Ed Rowley, local field executive explained the organization of the city committee and introduced the various members and their official capacities. Each of the Troop and Pack representatives made reports of their unit activities. These reports indicate that every one of the nine Troops and Packs in the city are active and doing a fine job of reaching the boys and giving them a good program of Scouting and Cubbing.

Reports of the Cub units indicate that this program is doing as much to bring the parents into the program and the monthly-Cub-Parent meetings are doing much to educate parents in Cubbing.

Discusses Present Status.

Commissioner Enos Keithley discussed the present status of Scouting as compared to past years. He pointed out that there are fewer Troops registered now than a few years ago but that more boys are actually being served because of the increased activity within these Troops. He expressed the opinion that with a good organization functioning in Dixon there should be several more Troops to meet the needs of more of the boys. Mr. Keithley also called attention to the importance of more activity within the Troops that would bring the parents into the program. He suggested that this activity be in the form of Parent nights, Dads' and Son get-togethers.

Cal Tyler expressed his delight in the renewed enthusiasm in Scouting in Dixon. He suggested that it appeared that at last the dreams of some of the men who had been connected with Scouting in the past were going to reach fruition. He pledged his support in working with the committee in putting the program and activities on a sound foundation so that every boy, regardless of his race, creed, financial status, family connection or other relationship, have the opportunity to participate in a Cub Park or Scout Troop.

Mayor Speaks.

Mayor Slothower expressed his delight at the growing interest in Boy Scouting and offered to assist whenever he could in giving guidance as well as with other phases of the program. The mayor's chief concern was with training of the adults, parents especially, in the community so that more people would really understand the principles underlying the Boy Scout program.

W. H. McMaster reported on the progress of the recent campaign for finances for the Boy and Girl Scout programs. His reports indicate that the goal set by the finance committee of $3,000.00 is nearly reached and expressed his belief that it would be reached and possibly exceeded. Mr. McMaster pointed out that these funds were for the administration of Scouting, both Boy and Girl Scouting, in Dixon through the local councils. Boy Scouting in Dixon is administered by the Black Area council.

Mr. Rowley's Report.

Ed Rowley reported on the registration of Cubs and Scouts in Dixon. The present Scout membership by Troops is as follows: Troop 60 of the Baptist church, 15; Troop 67 of the Grace Evangelical church has 27; Troop 72 of the Methodist church has 26 and Troop 89 of the Christian church has 38 members.

This makes a total of 106 Scouts in the four troops. The Cub membership shows Pack 322 of the North Central P.T. A. to have 27 Cubs; Pack 323 of South Central P.T. A. has 30 Cubs; Pack 324 of Loveland has 20 members and Pack 325 of Lincoln Pack has 37 members. This makes a total of 114 Cubs. Mr. Rowley also pointed out that the boy fact survey made in the public elementary schools last fall revealed that there are 179 of Scout age in these schools and that 119 of them want to be Scouts. Of this number only about 70 of them are in Scouting at the present time. In other words there are one hundred boys of Scout age in the local public elementary schools who want to be Scouts and would if they were given an opportunity. The same survey revealed that there are 200 Boys of Cub age in the public schools of the city. Of this number 114 are in Cubbing. More of them are ready to register as more Dens and leaders can be secured.

Plan Other Troops

Plans were started for the organization of at least two more Scout troops in the city. One of these to be located in the west end and the other to be a city wide Troop. Leaders are being recruited for these and the organization and extension committee is at work bringing about the organizations. Cal Tyler, who is vice-chairman of the central committee was appointed to assist the organization and extension committee with its work.

Elwin Bunnell reported that the Big Buddy Club, that is being sponsored by the American Legion, stands ready to work hand in hand with the Boy Scout committee in serving the boys of Dixon. He looks forward to a happy relationship between the two organizations.

Reports of Cub committees indicate that the local school board is cooperating with the Boy Scouts in providing room and facilities for Cub-Parent meetings at a minimum charge. These arrangements are being worked out in all of the local grade schools. Each of the local Packs are making definite plans to take advantage of this fine relationship by having Cub-Parent meetings once each month throughout the year. Pack 324 of Loveland is planning one for Friday evening, Pack 323 of South Central school is arranging for one in the very near future. Lincoln Pack has had one within the past week and the North Central Pack meets this evening to plan for their first fall Parent meeting. The use of the school buildings and the close relationship between school and Cub leaders will do much to insure success of Cubbing in Dixon. The work of the schools will be greatly enhanced by the Cub program if the latter is carried on as it should be.

WITH MEMPHIS

Memphis, Tenn. —(AP)—Thirty-eight-year-old Andy Reese, utility man, who used to be with the New York Giants, wound up last season with Memphis—his 14th in professional baseball—with a batting average of .333.

Andy's lifetime average is .305. He is being boomed for the management of the Memphis club, provided Billy Southworth, who held the post in 1937 and 1938, decides to take a job elsewhere.

CHIEF REINSTATED

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Police Chief Frank R. Feddersen, who refused to quit when the board of public works and safety suspended him had his full authority back today.

The board reinstated him yesterday after a petition was filed on his behalf for a court order to restrain the board from removing him without a hearing. A hearing on the petition will be held tomorrow.

The board suspended the chief Tuesday after citizens charged him with allowing "gambling and racketeering" here and asked he be deposed.

BIG REPUBLICAN RALLIES HELD IN COUNTY LAST EVE

Amboy, Harmon Scenes of Rousing Meetings of Interested Voters

Hon. Rodney M. Brandon of Aurora, addressed a capacity gathering in the I. O. O. F. hall at Amboy last evening, the scene of one of two meetings conducted by Republican candidates, the second being in the auditorium of the Harmon school, which also attracted a large and attentive gathering. All of the county candidates, Judge Harry Edwards, Representative Dennis J. Collins, County Superintendent of Schools L. W. Miller and Senator George C. Dixon spoke at the Amboy meeting which was arranged by the three precinct committeemen, Everett Barnes, George Carpenter and Ed Whitner.

Mr. Brandon, former head of the Illinois department of public welfare and founder of Mooseheart, gave a forcible talk on national issues and cited the fallacy of the New Deal promises. He discussed the "leftist" movement during which he called attention of the history of American business for the past 100 years, and the present administration's continued program of confiscation of private property. In this discussion, the speaker charged that the New Deal administration was buying votes with the people's monies.

Property Bears Cost

In referring to subsidies, Mr. Brandon charged that American property is bearing the cost of the extravagant government. He warned of the inconsistency of the levelling process as advocated by the New Deal president, and in his closing, called attention to the political advertisement of a single Democratic office seeker, which advocates a one party system in the United States. Mr. Brandon cited Italy, Germany and Russia as examples of the one-party government.

County Chairman H. C. Warner presided at both meetings, and at the opening of the Amboy rally introduced the five county candidates, Ward T. Miller, Gilbert P. Finch, Sterling D. Schrook, John A. Torrens, Grover W. Gehant, and L. W. Miller and Judge Harry Edwards. After the Brandon address, Representative Dennis Collins and Senator George C. Dixon talked.

Greeted by Crowd

At Harmon a large crowd attended the meeting held in the auditorium at the school building. Representative Collins and Senator Dixon opened the meeting and with the arrival of the county candidates, the first two speakers proceeded to Amboy. The well attended Harmon meeting was arranged by Precinct Committeemen Alf Clatworthy, The East Grove Ramblers string trio and Young Republicans male quartet from Ashton, furnished music for the meetings.

This evening Hon. Oscar E. Carlstrom of Chicago will address a community rally to be held in the high school auditorium at Stead.

The Republicans controlled 61 per cent of the House.

In the mid-administration election of 1930, the Democrats picked up nine seats in the Senate and 54 in the House. That gave them a bare House majority. In the Senate the Republicans retained a majority of one.

In 1932 the Roosevelt landslide gave the Democrats 12 more Senate seats—a majority of 23. At the same time they gained 94 House seats, thereby obtaining an overwhelming majority of 196 in the House.

Growing Democratic popularity also was reflected that year in gubernatorial returns. In 1930 the Democrats had captured seven governorships in addition to the 18 they already held. In 1932 they added 13 more, raising the total to 38, compared with nine for the Republicans and one—Minnesota—for the Farmer-Laborites.

The 1934 election brought further Democratic gains in Congress, while the number of governorships held firm. In the Senate the dominant party picked up 11 seats and in the House it won nine more.

The same trend continued two years ago, when Roosevelt was re-elected by the largest majority ever accorded a presidential candidate. The Democrats, who already had 70 seats in the Senate, picked up five more and added 11 members to their 322 in the House.

As of today the Democrats have 77 Senators to the Republicans' 15, and 328 Representatives to the Republicans' 88.

CLIMAX IS NEAR.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The state political campaign neared a climax today with Republican and Democratic oratorical sieges concentrated on the senatorial front.

Governor Horner stepped into the metropolitan political scene last night with a blast at the Republican ticket in general and the party's senatorial candidate in particular.

Richard J. Lyons, Republican nominee for senator, continued his drive for votes in Tuesday's general election with a series of speeches assailing the administration of "Boss Horner" and the alliance between his Democratic opponent, Scott W. Lucas, and the Kelly-Nash organization of Chicago.

Lucas, carrying his campaign to the suburbs, praised the New Deal's relief program and asserted "the reactionary spokesmen do not have the courage to ask for its repeal nor do they tell us what they intend to substitute for it."

Governor Horner termed the Republican ticket "probably the weakest ever put forth by a major political party in Illinois in modern times" and called Lyons a "fantastic figure" who "has shocked even some of those leaders who engineered his nomination."

"As Mr. Lyons has developed his strange ideas," the governor said, "it has become plain that he is making a new law for intelligence and honesty in Illinois."

U. S. Senator James Hamilton Lewis appealed for the election of Democratic candidates in a speech at Joliet last night. Louie E. Lewis, Democratic nominee for state treasurer, delivered one of his last downstate speeches at Rochelle.

C. Wayland Brooks of Chicago, Republican nominee for governor in 1936, spoke on behalf of the Republican ticket at Geneva last night. He said cooperation between business and government was imperative and that when the Democrats came to power "they launched a vicious attack against business."

CANDIDATES PLEDGED.

Washington, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The Republican national committee announced last night that Richard J. Lyons, G. O. P. senatorial candidate from Illinois, was included in a list of the party's candidates and incumbents who have pledged themselves to an investigation "in the next congress."

SOME POSSIBILITIES

Washington, Nov. 3.—(AP)—If the Republicans make gains in next Tuesday's election, it will be the first reversal of national political trends since the Democrats captured control of the House in 1930.

Even the most ambitious claims of Republican leaders have not indicated they expect to wipe out Democratic majorities in Congress. Their expressed hope is to show a definite change in popular opinion by electing at least eight more governors and Senators and 70 or 80 more Representatives.

These figures are disputed by Democratic leaders, although most of the latter readily say the Republicans may gain 20 or 25 House seats and two or three senators and governors.

Since 1930 Democratic control has spread constantly until the present Congress has the greatest number of Democrats and the smallest number of Republicans in history.

When the Republican administration of Herbert Hoover began in 1929, his party held 55 Senate seats and the Democrats held 38.

SLIPPERY MUD AND DAMP CORN HAMPER HUSKERS IN FIELD

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 3.—(AP)—In the slippery mud of a South Dakota corn-field, 21 farmers from 11 states were on edge to battle today for a silver trophy, $100 and the honor of being enrolled in agriculture's hall of fame as the 1938 national corn-husking champion.

The competing huskers from corn-belt states had little hope of breaking the national record of 41.52 bushels in the allotted 80 minutes, because of rains which made footing uncertain and dampened the ripe corn in the husks.

Ran Hanson of Bingham Lake, Minn., the 1937 champion, was rated a good chance to repeat. Minnesota fans asserted, however, he would have to beat Ted Balko, a former champion, who nosed out Hanson in the Gopher state contest.

Other favorites included South Dakota champion Richard Anderson, Sioux Falls; runner-up Earl Henry of Flandreau; the Nebraska entrants, Louis Korte of Stanton and Joe Wenthers of Allen, and the Wisconsin Huskers, Dick Post of Evansville and Omar Koopman of Hazel Green.

The contest was held on the J. N. Jensen farm 22 miles north of here. Preparations were made to handle a crowd of more than 100,000 persons the contest was to get under way at 11:45 A. M.

A lovely brunette farm girl, Miss Venita Appley of Elk Point, S. D., presided as "Queen of the Husking Bee." The 11 state champions voted her the title and she was crowned by Champion Hanson.

It was announced the 1939 contest would be held near Lawrence, Kans., probably on the Kansas University farm.

Fox registers More Interest in Hunting

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Maybe it's modesty, but Jimmy Fox registers more interest in hunting than in being the only man ever to be named three times as "most valuable" American League player.

He left his suburban Elkins Park home at dawn yesterday, shot a few rabbits and pheasants, and, returning for a late dinner received news the Baseball Writers of America had again placed him atop.

His disappointment over his bag—three pheasants and "four or five" rabbits—marred whatever elation he may have felt over getting 305 of 336 possible points in the vote.

Jimmy said, too, that he believes his "best year" still is ahead. He was 31 two weeks ago.

"They said he was through after the off season he had in 1937, but look what he did," the Boston slugger's attractive little brunette wife chimed in proudly.

Tested Recipes for Reader Cooks

BANANA SCALLOPS

What to have for a vegetable? How about a fruit-vegetable, for real variety and wholesomeness. Use pure melted shortening; one egg; one and one-half teaspoons salt; six firm bananas; three-fourths cup fine cornflake crumbs, bread, or cracker crumbs, or cornmeal. (Six servings.)

For shallow frying, have one inch of melted shortening in the frying utensil. For deep-fat frying, have a deep kettle one-half to two-thirds full of melted shortening. Heat to 375 degrees F. or until a one-inch cube of bread will brown in 40 seconds.

Beat egg and add salt. Slice peeled bananas crosswise into one-inch thick pieces. Dip into egg and roll in crumbs, or cornmeal. Shallow fry or deep-fat fry in the hot shortening, one and one-half to two minutes, or until brown and tender. Drain well. Serve very hot. Evaporated milk, or top milk, may replace egg.

CHICKEN APPLE SALAD

Here is a surprise treat for that special luncheon, or for the bridge crowd. This combination salad of apples and chicken is baked before serving, meaning that it can be prepared in advance and is quickly served in the individual portions.

Choose large, sour apples, wash thoroughly, wipe and score. Then with a sharp knife, enlarge the hole left by removing core. Chop cold chicken (or veal) very fine. Season with thyme, salt and pepper. Moisten with top milk or a mixture of egg and cream and mix with very fine bread crumbs. Stuff apples, bake in moderate oven until tender, but not broken. Serve cold with crisp lettuce and mayonnaise.

CREAMED OYSTERS

Four tablespoons butter; five tablespoons flour; one teaspoon salt; two cups milk; one pint oysters; one cup diced cooked celery; dash paprika and pepper.

Melt butter, stir in flour and seasonings and when well blended add milk. Stir over a low fire until smooth and thick. Boil one minute, add drained oysters and cooked celery. Warm together only until the edges of the oysters curl. A few strips of pimiento may be added if liked. Serve at once on triangles of buttered toast, or toasted crackers, or in crisp patty shells.

PORK APPLE PIE

A crowning and kindly treat for any occasion is this substantial dish, baked in rich pastry. With the pie, serve baked potatoes, a salad of greens and a fruit dessert. First, prepare pastry in the dependable cooking school method. Cut three pounds of lean fresh pork in small pieces; peel, core and slice four large tart apples; peel and slice thinly one onion, and season with two teaspoons salt and one-fourth teaspoon white pepper. Some cooks like to add a dash of cider vinegar. Meat stock, or hot water, or a bouillon cube dissolved in hot water, will be needed.

Line the sides (not the bottom) of a baking dish with pastry. Invert a custard cup in the dish to prevent a soggy crust. Arrange the pork, apples and onions in alternate layers. Sprinkle each layer with seasoning and pour on sufficient meat stock or hot water to moisten.

Cover with a crust in which slits have been cut for the escape of steam. Seal edges. Bake two hours in a moderate oven.

ROAST DUCK

Five pound duck
3 tablespoons flour
1-3 cup orange juice
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon paprika
1-4 cup sliced onions
2 cups boiling water.

Wash and clean duck. Cook giblets until tender in water to cover. Chop and add to gravy. Stuff duck and place, breast side down, in a roasting pan. Bake for 30 minutes in a hot oven. Add flour, orange juice, seasonings and water. Cover. Reduce heat and roast for about two hours or until duck is very tender when tested with a fork. Baste every 15 minutes.

If there is much fat cooking out of the duck, remove it with a spoon.

CORNBREAD STUFFING

2 cups diced, cooked corn-bread
1 cup soft bread
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 cup chopped apple
2 tablespoons chopped onions
1 teaspoon poultry seasoning.
1-3 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon paprika
1-2 cup butter, melted.
Lightly mix ingredients with a fork and stuff the duck.

SPICED CRANBERRY SAUCE

1 quart cranberries
6 whole cloves
1-4 cup bark cinnamon
2 cups water
1-2 cups granulated sugar
Wash berries. Add spices and water. Cover and let simmer for ten minutes. Remove spices. Add sugar and let boil for three minutes. Serve warm or cold.

SPANISH RICE MOLD

2 cups boiled rice
1-4 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon paprika
1-4 teaspoon celery salt
2 tablespoons butter, melted
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
2 eggs
1-4 cup milk

Mix ingredients and fill buttered ring mold. Bake for 15 minutes in a pan of hot water in a moderate oven. Remove from oven and let rice mold stand in hot water five minutes. Carefully unmold and fill and surround with sauce.

SAUCE

4 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons minced onions
2 tablespoons minced green peppers
1-4 cup diced celery.
1 cup tomato juice
2-3 cup water
1-3 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon white pepper
1-4 cup chopped ripe olives.
Brown onions, peppers and celery in butter heated in a frying pan. Add flour and cook until it has browned. Add rest of ingredients. Let simmer for five minutes or until thick and creamy. Serve very hot.

ORANGE MUFFINS

1-2 cups pastry flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1-8 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 egg
1-3 cup orange juice
1-4 cup milk
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
3 tablespoons fat, melted

Mix ingredients. Beat one minute. Half-fill greased muffin pans and bake for 15 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve warm with butter.

COMMUNISTS GO TO COURTS IN COUPLE OF LIBEL ACTIONS

Chicago, Nov. 3—(AP)—A $250,000 suit charging the Chicago Tribune with libeling the Communist party was filed in Circuit Court yesterday by two members of the party.

The plaintiffs, Elmer Johnson and Samuel Hammersmark, stated an article published Sunday injured their business and social relations.

The defendants included the Tribune Company, Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher, and Edward S. Beck, assistant editor-in-chief. McCormick also was named a defendant in a $500,000 libel suit filed yesterday at Minneapolis by Abraham Harris, editor of the Minnesota Leader, Farmer-Labor publication, and a leader in Governor Elmer A. Benson's re-election campaign.

Harris' suit, alleging defamation as the result of a book "Communists or Catpaws," also named as defendants Ray P. Chase, former Minnesota state auditor, author of the book; F. M. Steiner, Minneapolis business man and capitalist; E. L. Somerville, president of the Minneapolis Real Estate Board; and the Bureau of Engraving, a Minneapolis publishing firm. The book purports to show Communist activities within the Farmer-Labor party.

FORD V-8 FORDOR SEDAN SHOWN

THE graceful, modern styling which marks the 1938 Ford V-8 is illustrated in the big Fordor sedan pictured above. Body and hood are long, fenders deep and massive. The Fordor sedan seats six comfortably.

Interiors are well-appointed, upholstery either boucle or mohair. The front seat is full width and holds three people comfortably. Brakes are hydraulic. Either 85 or 60 horsepower engine can be specified.

Body is all-steel. Equipment includes twin electric horns, dual windshield wipers, ash tray, glove compartment and rear seat arm rests. There is a large luggage compartment in the rear deck.

HIS THIRD ATTEMPT

Chester, Ill., Nov. 3—(AP)—A parole application for Toddy Dillon, who is serving a one-to-20-year sentence at Southern Illinois state penitentiary for robbery, will be considered by the state parole board at its next meeting.

This was Dillon's third appearance before the parole board since entering the penitentiary in May, 1931. He was sentenced for a series of Chicago robberies.

The cuckoo lays its eggs in the nests of other birds and it always selects a nest belonging to a bird which feeds its young on food suitable for young cuckoos.

A pen of 13 White Leghorn hens laid 3,416 eggs in 41 weeks during a Florida egg-laying contest.

CHAS. H. WEEGHMAN WHO MADE AND LOST MILLIONS, IS DEAD

Chicago, Nov. 3—(AP)—Charles Henry Weeghman, New York restaurateur, died yesterday in Chicago, the scene of both his rise from coffee boy to multimillionaire and his fall from financial heights. He was 64.

He suffered a stroke Tuesday while returning from Hot Springs, Ark., to his home with his wife, Carol.

Weeghman was a coffee boy in Charlie King's loop restaurant in the nineties. The day his employer died Weeghman opened his own restaurant and soon was on his way to riches.

Known as "Lucky Charlie," Weeghman built his fortune on one-arm restaurants. He was the first to popularize the one arm chair dairy lunch.

His fortune was estimated at $8,000,000 when he ventured into baseball in 1915 as the backer of the Federal Baseball League. The venture, estimated to have cost him $5,000,000, was the first of a series of events which caused financial collapse.

Weeghman purchased the Chicago Cubs baseball team for $500,000 from Charles P. Taft, brother of President Taft, after the Federal League disbanded. In 1920 he sold the club to William Wrigley, Jr. Three years later he was forced to abandon connections with his lunchroom chain.

Recently he managed a restaurant at Fort Lee, N. J. Weeghman was survived by his widow and a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy J. McDonough, of a previous marriage. Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at Richmond, Ind., his birthplace.

AIRPLANE SCARES THE PIGS. Muncie, Ind.—(AP)—Rusty Baston's model gas airplane flew longer and farther than he thought it could.

A farmer found it in his pig pen, a mile away. The plane was undamaged, but the pigs were jittery for days.

Diggers Fail to Learn Answer to Question of Authorship of Dramas

London, Nov. 3—(AP)—Excavators in ancient tombs of Westminster Abbey failed today to uncover parchments by which scholars hoped to determine the authorship of Shakespeare's works.

Workmen were said to have struck a lead coffin and the bones of one of Great Britain's illustrious poets but uncertainty developed whether the tomb was that of the poet Michael Drayton who died in 1630 or that of Edmund Spenser, in which researchers expect to find handwritten elegies for comparison with known specimens, thereby settling the controversies whether Sir Francis Bacon wrote the dramas attributed to Shakespeare.

India and Egypt have the highest percentage of illiteracy of all large countries.

Mount Morris — The Typographical Auxiliary is sponsoring a doll show to be held early in December. A fine program is being arranged and prizes will be given in each of the following classes: Oldest doll. Best dressed doll. (doll to be dressed by owner of doll). Best collection of unusual dolls. Home-made dolls. Character dolls. Paper dolls. Figurines. And for the boys prizes are offered for: Model airplanes. Clay models. Soap carving. The following committee is in charge of arrangements: Mrs. Stanley Gruhn, Mrs. Frances Asp, Mrs. E. Bruner, Mrs. Fred Meeker.

Three carloads of Ogle county people accompanied Fred Nordman, Ogle county winner at the corn husking contest last week to Modesto Monday where Mr. Nordman placed ninth with 26.00 bushels of corn in the state contest. His Ogle county record was 41.26 bushels. Mt. Morris men making the trip were: J. Walker Robbins and J. C. Corbett. Other Ogle county people making the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Claire Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Smith, Carl Beard, W. D. Wilmarth and Mrs. Fred Nordman. The contest at the state contest husked 32 bushels of corn.

The Cardinal patrol of Girl Scouts with their leader, Miss Ruth Meeker, had a Halloween party at the Scout cabin Tuesday night. The Blackhawk Grange members are serving dinner to the Democratic committeemen meeting at the Coliseum at Oregon today. A permanent live Christmas tree was planted just back of the Legion memorial fountain Tuesday. The American Legion, Business men's league, and a citizen who prefers to remain unknown, each contributed $25.00 for the tree which is a Colorado spruce and was purchased through the local greenhouses. Mrs. Zella Eversole entertained at "42" Tuesday evening. Mrs. U. B. Pittenger received the prize for high score and Mrs. Fred Pearce was low. Other guests were Mrs. Josie Ray, Mrs. L. G. Schaer, Mrs. Ernest Bruner and Mrs. Fred Meeker.

OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY.

Rochelle Rebekah lodge observed the 42nd anniversary of the founding of the local lodge at a special meeting Tuesday. District officers were present including Miss Dorothy Conyer of Lindenwood, president; Mrs. Minnie Haynes, of Stillman Valley, vice president; Mrs. Olive Confer, Lindenwood, secretary; Mrs. Elsie Grant, Oregon, treasurer; and Shylene Schelling, Leaf River, warden. Mrs. Amelia McConaughy, who is still active, was the first noble grand of the Rochelle lodge when it was organized, with 40 charter members, on Nov. 6, 1896.

C. OF C. BANQUET.

Covers were laid for over one hundred for the banquet of the Rochelle Chamber of Commerce held in the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening. A good old-fashioned New England boiled dinner was served by the Eastern Star. H. E. Livermore was the speaker of the evening, giving an illustrated lecture on the growth of the longue industry in the United States. Groves have been started in the southern states and oil is pressed from nuts. The oil is used in paints as a drier and in water proofing. Following the address the Chamber of Commerce voted to recommend to the City council that there be two-hour parking on Lincoln highway, Dewey Court, Lincoln avenue from Lincoln Highway to Sixth street, and Fourth avenue from Sixth street to Main street. The credit bureau problem was briefly mentioned, also a community chest and holiday activities. The next committee met after the meeting for a session on Christmas plans. H. R. Lissack presented the work thus far accomplished by the Chamber of Commerce and it was decided to hold monthly dinner meetings during the winter months.

PINNED UNDER CAR.

Arthur Inboden, 19, was found pinned beneath his car at about 2 a. m. Sunday near the Binz farm, 1 1/2 miles north of Rochelle. Inboden suffered a skull fracture and other injuries when his car left the pavement after he lost control of it, probably because of heavy fog. The car struck a culvert, throwing him from the front seat, and overturned and fell on his body. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Barney were among the passers-by who stopped to view the car, and they discovered Inboden unconscious beneath the wreckage. There were no witnesses to the accident. Mr. and Mrs. Barney notified police authorities who took him to the Lincoln hospital. Police said Inboden, who lives at the Keith Baker home, 6th street and 10th avenue, had attended the theater here last Saturday night, that he had taken his brother-in-law to his home in Flag Center and was on his way to Rochelle when the accident occurred.

OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishing of parcel post is being celebrated here and Postmaster F. J. Tilton spoke at the Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday night, on the work of this important department of the postal service.

TO OPEN DRIVE.

Armistice day, Nov. 11, at 9 a. m. the city siren will be sounded as a starting signal for the parade of workers who will open the Red Cross drive in Rochelle. Mrs. Robert C. Brundage, is roll call chairman this year, and under her supervision an effort will be made to call at every home in the city that day. Memberships for the Red Cross organization will be solicited, but people desiring to make contributions of smaller amounts may have an opportunity to do so. The Boy Scouts are co-operating in staging the city-wide drive, and on Thursday, Nov. 10, Scouts will call at every home distributing informative literature regarding the work done in Illinois, other states, and abroad by the Red Cross. Representatives at the National Bank of Rochelle will receive contributions from the people of the rural communities. Business organizations where three or more are employed and all have memberships, will be given the 100 per cent Red Cross membership poster for display. Individuals joining will receive a window poster and the Red Cross button. Members are urged to wear their membership buttons.

SUBLETTE NEWS

BY BRUCE MUNRO

Sublette — The Parent-Teacher Association will meet at the Sublette public school Thursday evening, Nov. 10 at 8 o'clock. Miss Hermoine Vincent will show moving pictures featuring a life-size picture of Yellowstone park. A small admission will be charged. Vernon and Mabel Hutchinson have moved to another district. We were sorry to have them leave. Last Thursday, Oct. 27, the Sublette Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Elsie July with a good attendance. The meeting was opened by singing "Believe me in all these endearing young charms," followed by a prayer by the president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read, the treasurer's report given, both of which were accepted. The president announced that all officers and chairmen of committees should file reports at the next meeting which will be the annual meeting. Mrs. Lena Biggle had charge of the program, which opened by the group singing "Brighten the corner where you are," after which Mrs. Ulrich read an interesting paper she had prepared on the subject, "Housekeeping as a profession." Roll call was answered by "Intelligent buying." She had several contests which provided interesting entertainment and prizes were given. The hostess served delicious refreshments. The next meeting will take place in the Union church parlors on Wednesday, Nov. 9. As this is to be the annual meeting the election of officers will take place and the lunch will be served at the noon hour. Members will bring a covered dish to pass, and all are urged to attend this meeting. Mrs. Lena Biggle will have a short program on Armistice Day. Miss Juanita McComb was an over-night guest at the J. J. Barton home Sunday.

Mrs. Pat Barnard of Elmhurst, Mrs. Munro and daughter Audrey, will Landworth and Frank Rex were callers at the C. L. Rex home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ray of Rockford were callers at the Munro home Sunday.

WEEKEND HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Baas drove to Peoria Saturday morning to bring home their son, Wallace. Omer Baumgartner and Sheldon Foran also attend Illinois university to spend the weekend with their parents.

DR. HOLLAND SPOKE.

The lecture given by Dr. John Holland Tuesday evening and sponsored by the Christian church was very well attended. Rev. Ford acted as chairman and Mrs. Pearl Simon of Princeton sang a solo, "The Good Shepherd." Dr. Holland's topic was "The Harp of Life" and he illustrated his lecture with poems of his own composition. It was a rare treat to meet and hear Dr. Holland in person as his radio fame is familiar to every one.

MALOKA CLUB MET. The Maloka club met at the home of Mrs. Eva Rudiger with two tables of bridge at play. Mrs. Lou Ross was a guest and she received the high score. Dainty refreshments were served.

SPENT SUNDAY HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. Cash and children of Bloomington spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burkle.

PRINCETON CALLERS.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hasenager, John Winger and Mrs. Frank Bullington were Princeton shoppers Monday.

IOWANS WERE HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burkle enjoyed a visit on Tuesday with their son, John, and a friend, Frank Smith of Wilton Junction, Iowa.

COMMUNITY CLUB MET.

The Normandy Community club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Russell Weller with 12 members present. Mrs. Kinnaman, the president, presided at a short business session. Roll call was answered with "The First Thanksgiving." Community singing with Mrs. Ida Nelson, "Juanita," "My Old Kentucky Home," and "The Old Folks at Home" was much enjoyed. The nominating committee composed of Mrs. Weller, Mrs. C. B. Lancaster and Mrs. Nelson reported the following officers: For president, Edith Brop; vice president, Jennie Wahl; secretary and treasurer, Ellen Knudsen. They were unanimously elected and will take office Jan. 1st. The guests were Norene Renner, Marjorie Peach, Evelyn Weller and four juniors. Mrs. L. G. Carpenter will be the December hostess. A scrambled lunch will be served at noon and a Christmas party will be part of the program.

TO STAGE SHOW. Arrangements were completed during the past week by the Walnut Chapter of the Future Farmers of America to stage a new kind of a community talent show, called a "Hillbilly Wedding." The show will be given for two nights at the Walnut Community High school on Jan. 6th and 7th, 1939. A "Hillbilly Wedding" is described as a hilarious evening of laughter and gaiety in which the country people of this entire vicinity will be invited to participate, bringing their guitars, accordions, fiddles, mouth organs and square dancers, with the local businessmen who will be asked to impersonate lovely ladies of the day. There will be a bride and bridegroom and all the "trimmings" and a real old fashioned barn dance wedding.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE. Jay Langford, Harold Wallace and Marvin Gunther with Wayne Young as alternate will go to the High School Conference at Illinois university to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, as judges of the fat stock.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Miss Carrie Hammerle and Mrs. Rufus Bacon surprised Mrs. Ben Gunther Wednesday, the occasion being her birthday. Mrs. Glenn Fritz is confined to her home with an attack of rheumatism. Mary Jane Hewitt and Mrs. Heurlein spent Tuesday in Manlius at the home of Mrs. Donald King. A large number of Red Oak people attended the lecture given by Dr. John Holland at the high school on Tuesday evening.

FANFARE—

By DON DANIELSON

Inflated leather balls are bouncing and voices are being raised in the gym along the waterfront as Coach Sharpe grooms his material for the coming basketball season. Last night the sophomores and freshmen worked on the principles of the game—learning to pass, dribble, reverse and under the basket shots. Tonight the juniors and seniors will work out . . . and so the classes are alternating each night. Outside the gym in the ever-shortening days C. B. Lindell still holds the sports throne with his grid players who will conclude their season here on Nov. 11.

Wisconsin and Northwestern will meet for the 26th time Saturday in their grid game at Evanston. Of the past 25 games played Wisconsin has won 14, Northwestern 7 and 4 games ended in a tie deadlock.

Several from Dixon will attend the Sterling-Belvidere game Saturday afternoon while the Dixon team enjoys an open date. The homecoming session between Sterling and Belvidere will be played on the new Sterling high school field and assumes great importance to Dixon. Reasons: (1) Dixon plays Sterling here on Armistice Day. (2) If Sterling wins the neighbors will be tied with Dixon. (3) If the Belvidere boys win THEY will be tied with Dixon. (4) If the game ends in a deadlock, Dixon remains at the top of the Northwestern conference.

Mendota at DeKalb will be the second conference game for this week end. This is a battle to get out of the cellar. Mendota is deeper in the basement than DeKalb after the latter's victory here last week end.

Still sore in body but soaring in spirits as a result of their 6 to 0 victory over Indiana Saturday, Harry Stuhldreher's Wisconsin football squad settled down to hard work again this week in preparation for the game against Northwestern's powerful Wildcats at Evanston on Saturday. Barring accidents this week, it is reported the Badgers should be in their best shape this week end since their tussle with Iowa four weeks ago. Several in Dixon are making plans to see the game at Dyche stadium.

The Northern Teacher-Elmhurst college football game, scheduled for Saturday, has been moved up to tomorrow night.

Coach Art Driver of Oregon high school has announced his starting line-up for the game with Amboy to be played tonight under the lights at Mt. Morris. Those who will start are: Pryor, le; Thomas, it; Franklin, ig; Putman, c; Wyrauch, rg; Smith, rt; Palsma, re; Howell, qb; Maxwell, lb; Ferguson, rh; Sauer, fb. Mr. Driver's comment on the game was, "I believe it will be a tough game, all right!" The battle is scheduled to begin at 7:30 P. M.

The officials for the Oregon-Amboy game tonight will be Ralph Johnson of Rockford, referee, Harold Walker, former coach at Mt. Morris and now of Byron, umpire; Henderson of Mt. Morris, head linesman.

Morrison invaded Rochelle last night and went home with a 20 to 14 victory in the Rock River conference. Rochelle came through with a fourth quarter rally but could not overcome the 20-point lead which Morrison had built up in the first three frames. Settles made the first Morrison score after a march down the field. After receiving a lateral pass Austin went over for the second score and Dykema made the third touchdown on a five-yard line plunge. Birch of Morrison tackled May, halfback of Rochelle, behind the home team's goal for a safety in the second period. Racing around left end, Guio went 20 yards for a Rochelle touchdown and Jacobson scored on a 50-yard run in the closing minutes. B. Degryse place-kicked both extra points.

GARCIA'S BOSS IS SUFFERING MOST FROM THE DELAY

Hungry Filipinos Descend on Him Waiting for the Fight

New York, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The one who is suffering most from the postponement of the Armstrong-Garcia championship fight to Nov. 25 is George Parnassus, Garcia's manager, who is totally surrounded by hungry Filipinos. Parnassus thought he had a headache two nights ago when Armstrong came down with a lame back, but he didn't then know the extent of the calamity. He was so busy worrying about the postponement he didn't give the hungry Filipinos a thought until they descended upon him in a body at his hotel.

There were 13 of them. They had motored all the way here from California in two ancient vehicles just to watch their hero and countryman, Garcia, win the welterweight championship from Armstrong. They were running short of money, they informed Parnassus, and what was he going to do about it?

Suggested They Eat. Parnassus suggested, without much hope, that they motor right on back to California while they still had gasoline money. This brought expressions of pain to 13 Filipino faces. They had come

Illini Speed

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Bob Zuppke believed the 1938 University of Illinois varsity was "the worst tackling team in the history of the school" because it lacked speed, and sent out Track Coach Leo Johnson to prove it. Johnson, who also is backfield coach, reported today the fastest back covered 100 yards in 11.2 seconds, the fastest lineman in 13 seconds.

here to see Cefierino win the title, their leader explained, patiently, and they didn't mind waiting until Nov. 25.

Although they didn't say so in as many words, it was made clear to Parnassus, a sad-faced Greek, that he would be expected to play host to Garcia's most loyal rooters until such time as he got Cefierino in the same ring with Armstrong.

What makes matters even worse is the circumstance that Parnassus, himself, is fresh out of spending money. Except in rare cases, fight managers never have any money. They live almost exclusively on the cuff, borrowing from their favorite promoter against future fights for their young warriors. Parnassus is strictly a union man in this respect.

Worries About Eating. "Here I'm wondering how Cefierino and I are going to eat and train for another month, and now these 13 Filipinos pile in on me," he wailed as he paced the doctor's outer room, waiting for the latest report on Armstrong's condition.

"I can't send these guys home. I spent an hour this morning finding a cheap place for them to live, but I still don't know how I'm going to pay for it. Maybe I can get the boxing commission to give me Armstrong's $2,000 forfeit until he is ready to fight." (The commission said No.)

Dykes Expects to Be In Winter Tradings

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Jimmie Dykes, manager of Chicago's White Sox, doesn't expect to be on the active list next season but he hopes to be active in the winter trading marts.

Dykes, here for a conference with Owner J. Louis Comiskey, on his way from California to his Upper Darby, Pa., home, said he was looking for a regular catcher and a hard hitting outfielder. On the block he tentatively placed Pitcher Johnny Whitehead—"If I can get anything for him."

The Sox boss is exasperated with the failure of the big pitcher to follow through on his rookie performance in 1935.

Dykes, who played in 26 games as utility infielder last summer, said his 41 year old legs would put him on the retired list "by at least May 15" next season.

DOING ALL RIGHT

Boston, Nov. 3.—Eddie Shore, Boston Bruin defenseman, whose yearly salary runs into five figures, is said to be the highest paid player in the National Professional Hockey League.

The foghorn on a large light-strip requires a 72-horsepower engine to work it; it can be heard for 20 miles.

Dixon's Bob Underwood

BOB UNDERWOOD
160 POUND
DRAKE HALFBACK
AND CO-CAPTAIN OF THIS YEAR'S BULLDOG TEAM
A GOOD PUNTER
AND HIS SPECIALTY
IS RUNNING BACK PUNTS.

UNDERWOOD
HAILS FROM DIXON
ILLINOIS AND IS ONE
OF THE FASTEST MEN
ON THE DRAKE TEAM
TIED WITH PUG MANDERS
FOR SCORING HONORS
IN 1936.

In 1935 two Dixon high school athletes entered Drake university at Des Moines, Ia., to resume both studies and athletics together. Their names were Bob Underwood (above) and Francis Henry.

In 1938 these boys are playing with the Drake varsity football team with Bob as a co-captain of the Bulldogs. This spring they will finish their college careers.

In high school days here, Hank and Bob participated in football, basketball, track and golf together. They paired up to take care of the halfback duties on the football team and played forward and guard in Coach Sharpe's basketball squad.

Bob was a little more versatile than Hank on the track team, but both were ace performers. Underwood captained the basketball team where he won many honors and Hank was co-captain of the football team.

Now twenty-one years old, Bob Underwood is co-captain of the Drake football team, being one of the greatest running backs in the history of Drake. On the track team he is a consistent winner in the broad jump and javelin throw, and above all he has maintained a high average in the commerce college.

Francis Henry is an exceptionally good quarterback. He is excellent both offensively and defensively and a tops left-handed passer.

Both are members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Bob is the son of Mrs. Ada Underwood of 1305 First street and Hank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henry of 412 Fourth avenue.

BASKETBALL OPENS AT FRANKLIN GROVE WITH 2 TRIUMPHS

With the weather tempered for baseball, but with the calendar marking days of football, the curtain went up last night on an early season of basketball at Franklin Grove when the Groves trimmed the light and heavy-weight teams of Rollo high school.

In the preliminary event the Rollo boys went down under a 33 to 10 tidal wave as the Groves made more baskets than the America Indians. Roop of the Grove was the high score man of the tilt with a total of 11 points.

In the heavyweight game the hosts found the going a little tougher, but managed to win out with a score of 31 to 23 with Brown, a Franklin Grove guard, as the high point man of the game with a total of 10 points.

Officials of the game were Yoe and Powers of Mt. Morris.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

The BIRDS
ONCE KNOWN AS SNOWBIRDS ARE ALL KNOWN NOW AS "JUNCOSES!!" BUT NO ONE SEEMS TO KNOW JUST HOW THE NAME STARTED OR WHAT IT MEANS.

ANSWER: The Earl of Sandwich, a great gambler of the 18th century, had food brought to the gambling tables, in order that he might not lose time. . . and he had meat placed between slices of bread, to do away with eating utensils. Thus, the first sandwich.

TO VOTERS

of Lee County:

The County Superintendent of Schools should be elected on a two-fold basis, namely, qualifications and policies. You know my qualifications. As to policy—

First, I believe that changes in the school administration should not come as experiments imposed by the superintendent, but as improvements worked out cooperatively by the teachers and the superintendent.

Second, I believe that in order to best prepare the children in the fundamentals that the basic subjects of reading, grammar, spelling and arithmetic should be emphasized.

Third, I believe that in order to secure these things local control of schools must be retained.

I have appreciated your friendliness and courtesy toward me. I shall be grateful for your support.

People's Column

"COUNTRY SAVED"

Dear Sir: Just to call the attention of "100% Republican" to the item he misread in the circular, and quoted in the November 1st issue of the Telegraph. The item actually read, "The Republican press has made purges popular this season. Let's have one in the Lee County Court House."

I rather like the rest of his letter in which he admits that the Republican members of the Congress did nothing whatever about anything. Which conclusion I have already come to.

I particularly like his last paragraph in which he cries "Dictator" and falls back to the saving of the Constitution, knowing full well that the country has already been saved.

Very truly yours,
